Army Barracks Management Program

ABMP

An Adaptive Unit-Garrison Partnership to support the Army of the future that optimizes available resources, continues the targeted investments of the barracks modernization program, and ensures the Army maintains its commitment to improve the QOL of the unaccompanied Soldier.

Why is ABMP important?

Quality unaccompanied housing is essential to preserving and enhancing the All-Volunteer Force. Leaders at all levels are obliged to ensure unaccompanied Soldiers are housed in clean, safe, functional, and secure barracks, reinforcing Army leaders' commitment to provide a quality of life commensurate with their service and sacrifice to the nation.

Committed to providing Soldiers a proper living environment with predictable living standards, ABMP actively engages all stakeholders to improve the well-being and quality of life of unaccompanied Soldiers.

environment with predictable living standards, ABMP actively engages all stakeholders to improve the well-being and quality of life of unaccompanied Soldiers.

ABMP has 3 basic principles

Support the Mission: Provide Senior Commanders flexibility to ensure Soldiers are afforded world-class living arrangements
