MOST COMMON MISTAKES

- . TYPED APPLICATION! It is a REQUIREMENT for ALL applications to be "TYPED" using the wizard link provided as that link will generate a barcode. DO NOT GOOGLE an application. Applications cannot be "edited" whatsoever. Even if you edit it via PDF (or any other application) and it looks different, the barcode (when scanned) will only pull the original information that was originally entered.
- 2. MISSING DOCUMENTS: (Showing up to appointments regardless of missing documents): We service the military community, but we operate under the Department of the State (DoS) policies/regulations. No DA Form 4187, PoA, Memo from CMD, ETP (etc) is acceptable for any case. We absolutely have to have ORIGINAL documents in order to submit your passport application to the Department of State for processing. If you do not have the ORIGINAL birth certificate, birth abroad, marriage certificate, other required documents, then you must request it from the original source before you can be seen for an appointment. Absolutely no colored copy will suffice. If you applied for a Tourist passport, a lot of times they do not send your original documents back with the passport and may come in later. There is nothing we can do about this as our passport applications does not go through the Tourist processing center. You would either have to obtain a new original or wait for the original that was previously submitted to arrive. Again, we service our military community, but we strictly operate under DoS rules and each applicant must meet the minimum requirement.
- 3. NICKNAMES are listed in the "known by other names" section. Unless there is LEGAL DOCUMENTATION to a name change, please DO NOT list NICKNAMES. Any names listed in this section requires "ORIGINAL" LEGAL DOCUMENTATION for proof.
- 4. Names are not provided as stated on proof of citizenship:
- Names are misspelled, middle names or full names are not provided. Yes, the online application does not have an asterisk on middle name, but it is required if you have a middle name. Please do not forget this! If you have a long name, you will type as much characters as allowed.
- If your middle name is "David" but your birth certificate/passport states only "D," your middle name needs to be stated as "D" (to match your proof of citizenship).
- If your name has a dash on your birth certificate, but your passport does not have a dash... provide your name exactly as it is printed on whichever proof of citizenship you submit.
- 5. PARENT INFORMATION: Misspelled parents name, missing parent names. Mother's name AT BIRTH: 99% of the time, your mother's maiden name is listed on your birth certificate; if for some reason it is not, please make sure you do list your mother's name "at birth" regardless for her last name when have given birth. If both or one parent is listed on your birth certificate, it is a requirement that you list their name(s) as stated regardless if you ever knew them or not, raised you or not or like them or not. Parent(s) who passed away, if on your birth certificate...list them. Do not list your step parents unless they are on your birth certificate.
