

DEFERMENT AND DELETION SCREENING FORM

If you answer yes to any of these questions, please see your BN S-1 or Retention as soon as possible for more information on potential deferment or deletion actions.

1. Do you have temporary profile and/or undergoing medical treatment that will extend beyond your report date?
2. Have you been recommended for a medical separation board?
3. Have you been flagged for an adverse action?
4. Are you ineligible to reenlist or extend to meet service remaining requirements?
5. Do you expect to be separated (i.e. chapter, retirement, hardship, etc.)?
6. Have you already submitted a Green to Gold packet?
7. Are you pregnant and going overseas?
8. Is your spouse pregnant and due within six (6) weeks of your report date?
9. Do you desire to relocate your dependents during the summer or winter school break to minimize school disruption?
10. Are you dealing with extreme Family problems that may result in a compassionate request? For example but not limited to: terminal illness, severe medical problems, recent death of a close Family member, recent custody of children due to separation, divorce, or desertion, or adoption cases in which the home study has been completed and the child is scheduled to be placed within 90 days.
11. Do you have a scheduled court appearance that conflicts with your report date?
12. Is there anything not listed above that would prevent your reassignment?
