

The North Carolina State University Police Department is currently seeking candidates to fill the position of:

Police Officer

The NCSU Police Department houses 59 sworn law enforcement officers and functions autonomously as a standalone police agency, providing around the clock emergency dispatch, patrol, and other police services to the NCSU community. Our department achieves our goal of campus safety utilizing a variety of different strategies. In addition to our Uniformed Patrol Division, we have a Criminal Investigation Division (CID), Mounted Unit, K-9 Unit, Community Engagement Unit, and Crime Prevention Unit. Our officers are certified through the North Carolina Training and Standards Commission.

What we can offer:

- FREE Tuition to officers seeking to continue their education at any University in the UNC System (Undergraduate, Graduate & Doctoral Degrees)
- FREE on campus gym membership
- 10% Night shift Differential Pay
- Permanent Day or Night Shifts
- 14 regular days off per month
- Uniform and equipment provided at no cost
- Training classes available for advancement/promotion
- Individual or Family Health Plans
- Paid Vacation and Sick Time
- State Retirement and 401k Plans
