REDUCED SERVICES/STAFFING AT FORT

FORT HUNTER LIGGETT, Calif. –Fort Hunter Liggett FMWR facilities will be closed during this upcoming weekend (DEC 17-19) and the fort has implemented a maximum telework policy for its workforce for the holidays. The Garrison Leadership made a deliberate decision to cut back physical staffing and will allow a greater latitude for teleworking to help control the spread of the ongoing nationwide surge in COVID cases, which has affected the state of California as well as our Garrison. There are no changes to the force protection standards – gate guards are on duty and 100% vetting is enforced.

This immediate action also allows our Teams to spend more time with their loved ones over the holiday season. While this maximum telework effort will impact some services offered, Family, Moral, Welfare and Recreation will post updated hours and advice through the Fort Hunter Liggett MWR \(facebook.com\) and <https://www.hunterliggett.armymwr.com/> of any impacts as quickly as possible. Please check there for updates.

Fort Hunter Liggett has been at the forefront of the COVID fight for the last two years and will continue to take whatever precautions are necessary to protect you, your families and the Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen that come here to train. We appreciate everyone's continued diligence in fighting the spread of COVID and protecting our team.

We wish all a happy holiday season and enjoy time with family.
