SUPERSESSON. This memorandum replaces the Installation Environmental Policy, February 2012.

1. Fort McCoy's training mission is dependent on a high quality environment and natural resources. It is the responsibility of everyone who works and trains on Fort McCoy to first and foremost successfully complete our missions, but at the same time maintain a healthy environment that will support today's and tomorrow's Soldier.

2. In accomplishing our missions, it is Fort McCoy's policy to:

a. Foster the wise stewardship of our natural resources which will support and sustain:

(1) A realistic training environment.

(2) A productive operational base.

(3) The biological diversity of the land.

(4) When practical, commercial and recreational opportunities.

b. Make environmental compliance and pollution prevention an integral part of our operational processes.

c. Procure, when practical, environmentally-preferable and energy-efficient products and products made from recycled materials.

d. Identify environmental requirements early in the planning process that might impede construction projects or training activities.

e. Establish and document realistic environmental objectives and targets and maintain programs for their accomplishment.

f. Measure the effectiveness of our environmental management system and be dedicated to continuous improvement and re-engineering principles.
