1. Reference. AR 600-20 (Army Command Policy), 24 July 2020.
2. Purpose. To provide guidance to U.S. Army Garrison-Fort George G. Meade (USAG-FMMD) and Fort George G. Meade (FGGM) tenant organizations on the military equal opportunity (MEO) complaint procedures.
3. Applicability. These procedures are applicable to all service members assigned to, or under the operational control of USAG-FMMD and their Family members.
4. Policy. In accordance with guidelines set forth in AR 600-20, Chapter 6 and Appendix C of the reference, members of this command have the right to present, without fear of intimidation, acts of reprisal or harassment, complaints alleging acts of discrimination. If low-level resolution fails, the situation escalates, or is too malicious to resolve at a low-level, the complaint processing system defines a process for resolution. Soldiers (including DEP), cadets, and Family members (in accordance with DoDD 1350.2) may utilize the complaint processing system. Complaints from DA Civilians (to include those against Soldiers) alleging discrimination and/or harassment will be handled in accordance with the policies and procedures contained in AR 690-12 and AR 690-600, or as described in separate DoD and DA policy, or as provided for in any applicable collective bargaining agreement.
5. The complaint processing system addresses complaints that allege unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex (to include gender identity), national origin, religion, or sexual orientation and harassment which includes hazing, bullying, and other discriminatory harassment. Concerns raised and/or resolved outside of the complaint processing system are considered problem resolution or leadership actions; and are not considered MEO or harassment complaints. Incidents involving allegations of criminal behavior (that is, violations of UCMJ) will be reported or referred to law enforcement.
6. There are three types of MEO complaints each will be handled in accordance with AR 600-20:
