Fort George G. Meade Garrison Welcomes New Senior Enlisted Advisor

25 April 2024 - Incoming CSM, Command Sergeant Major Richard C. Moore, receives the garrison colors from Col. Michael A. Sapp, Garrison Commander during the Change of Responsibility ceremony.

Command Sgt. Maj. Richard Moore officially assumed his role as the senior enlisted adviser for the U.S. Army Garrison-Fort George G. Meade.

The transition took place in a ceremony held on April 25, at Club Meade where Moore was warmly welcomed into his new position.

Col. Michael Sapp, Fort Meade garrison commander, took the opportunity to express his gratitude to the outgoing CSM, Command Sgt. Maj. Andre Welch, for his unwavering dedication and commitment to duty. Welch's contributions were also acknowledged with respect and appreciation during his Retirement Ceremony.

In extending a warm welcome to CSM Moore, Col. Sapp expressed anticipation for the collaboration ahead. Despite recognizing that their time together may be brief, he conveyed eagerness to work alongside Moore in advancing the mission and serving the Fort Meade community.
