FEATURE GUEST SPEAKER

Hear from the Maryland Secretary of Veterans & Military Families Edward Rothstein! Col. Edward C. "Ed" Rothstein (U.S. Army, Ret.) brings over three decades of leadership, public service and military experience to his role. In 2011, Rothstein was appointed Garrison Commander of Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, where he led more than 227,000 personnel across five states. He spearheaded initiatives including the Fort Meade Community Covenant, wellness and family advocacy programs, and substance abuse prevention efforts.
