SERVING THE HOME OF ARMY AVIATION SINCE 1956

VOLUME 74 • NUMBER 07 • APRIL 03, 2024

The 101st Combat Aviation Brigade conducted a ceremony flyover with over 20 female pilots and crew chiefs on Dec. 8, 2023. Since the year 1987, the month of March was declared as Women's History Month, where we celebrate and recognize the contributions made by women to the United States. ## Team Novosel: U.S. Small Arms Multi-Gun Champions

A team of 10 Fort Novosel soldiers recently competed in the U.S. Small Arms Championship, commonly known as All Army, and brought home titles aligning well with the Army Aviation Motto, "Above the Best." The week-long annual competition at Fort Moore, Ga. brought together over 230 service members from the U.S. Army, U.S. Army Reserve, Reserve Officers' Training Corps, National Guard, and the Air National Guard from March 10-16, 2024. Competitors demonstrated their technical...

Best Job in the US Army - 152E Apache Helicopter Pilot

The job of an Apache Helicopter pilot is to leverage the unique capabilities of the AH-64 Apache to conduct attack and reconnaissance missions, support ground forces, and contribute to the success of military operations by locating, reporting on, and engaging enemy forces as required. For individuals like Warrant Officer 1 Troy Dekert Jr. and Warrant Officer 1 Samuel Warren, both Apache pilots assigned to Bravo Troop, 1st Squadron, 6th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Combat Aviation Brigade, 1st Infantry Division...

Apache Helicopter Celebrates 40 Years

With more than five million flight hours under its rotors and 40 years of technological advances behind it, the AH-64 Apache continues to be the best attack helicopter in the world. The Apache has been the Army’s heavy attack helicopter since the first delivery in January 1984. As the Project Management (PM) Office for Apache and the Army’s Aviation enterprise marks the 40th anniversary of the first delivery, Apache helicopters remain...

Army undersecretary outlines future investments

A few days after Congress passed a $1.2 trillion spending package, ending the threat of a government shutdown, Undersecretary of the Army Gabe Camarillo said the Fiscal Year 2024 appropriations provide critical funding that will allow the Army to continue to invest in key capabilities. The $825 billion defense appropriations bill includes $23.7 billion to the Army for procurement and $17.1 billion overall in Army research, development, test, and...
