FIRE AT PŌHAKULOA TRAINING AREA PICKING UP WITH HIGH WIND

High winds are reinvigorating the smoldering fire that started on November 10. It is estimated at approximately 120 acres currently with 50% containment. The fire is traveling westward towards Pu'u Kee Kee. PTA and County firefighters are on scene to prevent fire from moving out of PTA. PTA Public Works bulldozers and water tank are creating fire breaks. Army helicopters are conducting bucket drops. There is no danger to the surrounding communities.
