Lithuanian Embassy Referral List for Attorneys

Selecting a Lithuanian Lawyer
Before hiring an attorney, consider contacting several attorneys and describe the nature of the services you desire. Ask specific questions and expect the attorney to explain legal activities in language you can understand. Ask for a written schedule of fees generally charged for the services you require and inquire about the expected means of payment, currency, and exchange rate. Lawyers in Lithuania do not work on a contingency-fee basis. Do not turn over documents or funds to any attorney until you are certain that he or she fully understands your legal needs and is willing to handle your case. Under Lithuanian law, you must give power of attorney to your lawyer so that he or she may act on your behalf.

The U.S. Embassy in Vilnius maintains the following list of attorneys to assist U.S. citizens seeking legal representation in Lithuania. The listed individuals and firms have informed the Embassy that they are qualified to practice law in Lithuania and that they are sufficiently competent in the English language to provide services to English-speaking clients. The U.S. Embassy in Vilnius assumes no responsibility for the professional ability or integrity of the individuals or firms listed.

The following firms are listed in alphabetical order and their relative position on this list should not be construed as indicating any kind of preference on the part of the U.S. Embassy:
