Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)Request

Describe the specific records you are requesting in enough detail so that they can be located with a reasonable amount of effort. Generally, a record is "reasonably described" when the description contains sufficient file-related information (type of document, title, subject area, date of creation, potential location, time period(s), originator, etc.) or the request contains enough event-related information (date and circumstances surrounding the event the record covers) to enable the Government to conduct an organized specific search. This is a request under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

I request that a copy of the following document(s) be provided to me:

_____

Please be advised that by making a FOIA request, it shall be considered an agreement by you to pay all applicable fees up to $25.00 (see 22 CFR 171.14), unless you seek a waiver of fees (see 22CFR171.17). We will confirm this agreement in our acknowledgment letter. When making a request, you must specify a willingness to pay a greater or lesser amount which is dependent upon the hours spend by all parties involved in retrieving your requested documents.

I am willing to pay fees for this request up to a maximum of $_____. Please inform me if the estimated fees will exceed this limit before processing my request.

Please complete the requestor's information section below.
