CYS is hiring!

Child and Youth Services program is hiring and offering some rewarding opportunities. CYS needs additional Child and Youth Program Assistants for the Rheinland-Pfalz Military Community to expand programming. No previous experience is required for entry-level positions starting at $16.70 an hour. Other benefits include career development opportunities; ongoing professional training; a non-competitive transfer program; college scholarships and funding; and, 20% employee child care discounts. Visit www.usajobs.gov to apply.

Garrison employee rocks host-nation job with help from Freddie Mercury

As host-nation advisor, Oana Copaceanu serves as the human bridge between Romania and the United States, advising the ASA-Black Sea garrison commander, US units, the Royal Air Force, and others deployed here. She is also a consistent point of contact for Romanian politicians, civic leaders, and the local Romanian population. She's come a long way since learning English through rock music and motorcycle magazines.

SERVICE CULTURE SPOTLIGHT

From: Heimbach, Germany

Position: Scheduler and Estimator,
Directorate of Public Works

Recognized for: meeting with units, organizations and housing tenants on site, taking measurements to set up cost estimates for work orders. Determining how much funding is needed to repair or replace real property facilities. Conducting technical feasibility studies to find the best-valued solution for the best price.

What do you love most about your job?

"I like it when planned work for our customers is complete to their complete satisfaction. If the customer is satisfied and the work was done as planned, this makes me feel happy, satisfied and proud."
