The mission of ACS is to facilitate the commander's ability to provide comprehensive, standardized, coordinated and responsive services that support Soldiers, Army Civilians, Retirees and their Families regardless of geographical location, and to maximize technology and resources, eliminate duplication in service delivery, and measure service effectiveness.

ARMY EMERGENCY RELIEF

Army Emergency Relief (AER) is a private non-profit organization funded by Soldiers for Soldiers. The mission of AER is to provide emergency financial assistance to Soldiers and Families with a valid need. AER also provides undergraduate level educational scholarships to children and spouses of Soldiers.

ARMY FAMILY ACTION PLAN

Army Family Action Plan (AFAP) enables Soldiers, Family members, Retirees and DA Civilians the opportunity to let Army senior leadership know what is working and what is not, along with suggestions on how to correct the issue(s).

ARMY FAMILY TEAM BUILDING

Army Family Team Building (AFTB) is a fun and interactive training program that provides education and training, leading to personal resilience and professional development skills.

ARMY VOLUNTEER CORPS

Volunteering provides the opportunity to make a significant contribution to the community, feel satisfaction, learn new skills, gain work experience, meet new friends, and have fun! Fort Riley volunteer opportunities and volunteer registration forms are available at ACS.

EMPLOYMENT READINESS

This program provides employment, education, training, transition, and volunteer opportunities to give community members the competitive edge needed to secure employment. Computers are available for employment research and resume preparation.

EXCEPTIONAL FAMILY MEMBER PROGRAM

The EFMP is intended to give Soldiers the opportunity to have missions important to the Army blend with the Family needs. The EFMP is a mandatory enrollment Program, with renewal every three years for all active duty Soldiers that have a Family member with exceptional educational or medical needs. The EFMP works with other agencies to provide comprehensive and coordinated community support and personnel services to Families with special needs.

FAMILY ADVOCACY PROGRAM

The Family Advocacy Program (FAP) is dedicated to the prevention, education, intervention, and treatment of Family violence and child abuse. The FAP provides a variety of services to Soldiers and Families designed to enhance relationship skills and improve Family quality of life. This mission is accomplished through a variety of groups, seminars, workshops, and intervention services. Seminars and workshops are available to commanders, units or Families. Unit commanders are encouraged to contact their FAP Manager to schedule workshops and trainings that meet specific needs. Topics include: Command and Troop Education, Community Awareness, Conflict Resolution, Communication Skills, Stress Management, Parent Education, Domestic Violence Prevention and Reporting Procedures. Referrals are made to agencies that can most appropriately assist in providing crisis intervention, emergency housing, and legal services.

New Parent Support Program

This program offers support and assistance to parents of newborns, toddlers, and young children up to the age of three. The staff also supports expecting and adopting parents. Various types of support include parenting information, home visitation, special events, and playgroups.

Victim Advocacy Program

The Victim Advocacy Program provides victims with support, resources and information such as victim rights, methods of reporting, location of safe lodging, assists with emergency food/finances, and aids in establishing immediate and ongoing safety plans.

FINANCIAL READINESS

The Financial Readiness Program provides a practical approach to financial management with the objective of personal control over finances. The program includes training in money management, proper use of credit, financial planning, debt liquidation, and sensible budgeting. The goal of the program is to provide tools to handle money wisely, and to make informed purchasing decisions.

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL

The Information and Referral (I&R) Program is the vital link for information on a wide variety of services and programs available at Fort Riley, the local community, and at military installations worldwide. The mission of the I&R Program is to provide you with easy access to resources and become YOUR One-Stop Information Source.
