Pfc. Langhorn's legacy lives on in new Fort Rucker Training Complex

Just over two years ago, this corner was simply a pile of dirt. Today, the doors are officially open to a 76,000-square-foot facility that does more than update aging infrastructure; it cements the legacy of a Medal of Honor recipient into the daily lives of tomorrow's Soldiers. During the ribbon-cutting ceremony on July 9, Maj. Gen. Clair A. Gill, commanding general...
