Have your voice heard on Fort Novosel with AFAP

Have you ever had an idea for change, either at your installation or across the Army, but you weren't sure where to start? Take the first step to have your voice heard through Army Community Services and the Army Family Action plan or AFAP. AFAP is a way to enhance the quality-of-life issues, feedback, ideas, and suggestions. It's the best way to let Army leadership know about what works, what doesn't, and how you think problems can be resolved.

GEMS Created in Southeast Alabama: USAARL hosts annual extracurricular STEM education program

Gemstones slowly form from minerals deep in the Earth before being exposed to the surface through explosions of molten rock. In comparison, Gains in the Education of Mathematics and Sciences, or GEMS students grow their science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) skills in a fast-paced one-week immersion into hands-on experiments before they emerge on a Facebook Live ceremony having completed...

Basic Restrictions on Political Activities of Soldiers & DA Civilian Employees

The 2024 Federal Election Cycle is underway, and every Service Member and Civilian employee is encouraged to register and vote! However, Service Members and DA Civilians must be aware of limitations regarding their participation in the political process. The examples provided below are not exhaustive. Actions as minor as a "like," "comment," "share," "favorite," and/or "retweet" on a social media post can be viewed as endorsing, advocating, and campaigning for a partisan political party or issue. Think before you post or share. If in doubt, you are encouraged to reach out to your servicing OSJA for guidance, 334-255-3308. Get out and Vote but be smart and diligent during the 2024 election season!

What You Need to Know:

May <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>May vote and encourage others to vote – generally</li> <li>May, as an individual, donate to a political campaign or political issue</li> <li>May have a bumper sticker on your car</li> <li>May join a partisan or nonpartisan political club and attend while not in uniform [Off-duty/personal time, not official time]</li> <li>May attend political meetings or rallies as a spectator [In personal capacity on personal time and in civilian clothes only and without implying military endorsement]</li> <li>May "follow," "friend," or "like" social media related to political parties or candidates and No Fund Raising</li> <li>May participate in the Federal Voting Assistance Program</li> </ol>	May Not <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>May Not Encourage others to vote for a particular candidate in official capacity</li> <li>May Not Solicit donations or fundraise for a candidate or political party</li> <li>May Not have a Big Sign (or multiple stickers) on car – nor a flag/sign on on-post housing.</li> <li>May Not Volunteer for a candidate's campaign, political party or partisan political group [In official capacity or on Gov't time] [Civilians in official capacity, on duty, or using Gov't resources]</li> <li>May Not actively participate in any of these types of events [Civilians have more opportunity for active participation - but only if not on duty, not using Gov't resources or using official position]</li> <li>May Not "forward," "share," or "retweet" a post or tweet [Civilians in official capacity, on duty, or using Gov't resources]</li> </ol>
