 - Virtual Workshop Series: Finding Your Dream Job: July 9, 16 and 23 at 12 p.m. EDT.

Register: <https://www.moaa.org/content/events/transition-and-career/moaa-series-land-your-dream-job/>

Make steps to make your dream job a reality! No matter your industry or your experience level, MOAA's three-part seminar will offer advice and recommendations for career transition to help you begin or continue your journey of professional success. Join career transition specialist Capt. Pat L. Williams, U.S. Navy (Ret.), MOAA's program director for engagement and career transition services, as she helps you develop and hone your transition skills in three critical areas: networking, resume writing and interviewing.

Each one-hour seminar begins at noon EDT:

- Seminar I – Networking (July 9): Up to 85% of job-seekers find their next job through networking; are your connections up to the challenge? Register now and get tips on mastering the art and science of networking, including how to tackle the powerful informational interview.
- Seminar II – Resume Writing (July 16): An award-winning, eye-catching resume is a must. Learn practical resume-writing tips; find out how to write to influence others; and discover the best methods to showcase your skills, talent and experience. Be ready to highlight how and why you are the best candidate for the job.
- Seminar III – Interviewing (July 23): After utilizing your network and submitting a polished resume, you get the call: "We'd like you to come in for an interview." This is your opportunity to shine – to tell your unique professional story. Let MOAA show you how to get interview ready.

While this three-part series is best experienced in sequence and in its entirety, you are welcome to attend any module. Whether or not you attend live, you will receive a link to a recording of all sessions for which you've registered.
