The Defense Language Aptitude Battery (DLAB) evaluates the aptitude of a Soldier to learn a Foreign Language. The test is used to determine eligibility for Army language training. DLAB scores do not expire. Personnel who fail to qualify for language training with a score of 95 or higher on the initial test may retest after a 6 month waiting period. First and second retests may be given upon approval by the Soldier's immediate Commander. Requests for retests within the 6 month period, for third or subsequent retests, must be based on a valid military requirement documented by the unit Commander. Third and fourth retests require an Exception to Policy (ETP) packet that is escalated from the Ft. Stewart Test Control Officer (TCO) to the Army Personnel Testing (APT) program manager at HQ ACES in Ft. Knox, KY for processing. ALL requests for a retest must include the previous test date(s) and score(s). The test must be taken within 30 days of the Commander's signature date. I request to be administered the DLAB examination. I have not taken this examination within the last 180 days. This is an initial DLAB examination. OR This is a DLAB retest.
