

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY CAREERS IN DATA & COMPUTING INFORMATION SESSION

We are hiring all career levels in various duty locations across the United States, including remote!

We are powered by science and technology to fulfill our mission.

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) ensures America's security and prosperity by addressing its energy, environmental, and nuclear challenges. At our very core, we are an agency powered by science and technology to fulfill our mission—from deploying energy solutions to enhancing national security. Join our event to learn about our important and exciting career opportunities and how the Energy Department is working to maintain American leadership in technology and innovation.

We have rewarding career opportunities:

- Computer Engineer
- Computer Scientist
- Data Scientist
- Electronics Engineer
- IT and Cybersecurity Specialist
- Management & Program Analyst
- Mathematical Statistician
- Statistician

We offer a competitive base pay and a comprehensive benefits package:

- Insurance – Health, Life, Dental, Vision, & Long Term Care
- Flexible Spending Accounts
- 401(k) with up to 5% matching
- Defined-Benefit Pension Plan
- Paid Leave – Annual, Sick, & Parental Leave under FMLA
- Paid Federal Holidays
- Military Service Credit
- Annual Performance-Based Awards
- Award Opportunities Year-Round
- Recruitment, Relocation, & Retention Incentives
- Student Loan Repayment
- Flexible Work Schedules, Telework, & Remote Work Opportunities
- Training & Development Opportunities
- Employee Assistance Program

JOIN US FOR AN INFORMATION SESSION TO LEARN MORE!

June 27, 2024
2:00 PM - 3:30 PM ET

REGISTER HERE!

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

DOE was named #1 in America's Best Employers for Veterans 2023 by Forbes Magazine and one of the Best Places to Work in the Federal Government 2022 by the Partnership for Public Service.