MEMORANDUM FOR Soldiers, DoD Civilians, and Family Members of Fort Stewart and Hunter Army Airfield

SUBJECT: Evacuation Order (Hurricane Dorian)

1. Under the authority of the Joint Travel Regulation (JTR), I hereby order a mandatory evacuation as follows:

a. Evacuees and Evacuation Area. This order applies to all Soldiers and DoD Civilians assigned to, working at, or living on Hunter Army Airfield (HAAF) or Fort Stewart (FSGA), and their Family Members, whose residential quarters are located in (a) in an area identified for mandatory evacuation by civilian authorities and (b) within 200 miles from their sponsor's assigned duty location. This is a continuing order, and the identified evacuees and evacuation area are subject to change based on developing weather conditions and the actions of civilian authorities.

b. Safe Haven. Evacuees will proceed to a safe haven of their choosing located outside the evacuation area defined in paragraph 1a and within a 500 mile radius of the sponsor's assigned duty location at HAAF or FSGA. Evacuees are required to notify their chain of command of their safe haven location and to provide updated contact information. I may approve safe haven locations outside of 500 miles by exception.

c. Allowances & Temporary Duty (TDY).

(1) Military dependents and civilian employees and their dependents are authorized evacuation allowances when authorized/ordered to leave a CONUS location because of emergency circumstances, and they will receive transportation and per diem for allowable travel time until they reach a safe haven location within the proscribed radius.

(2) I am directing all Commanders and Organizational Leaders to place any Soldier subject to this order in a temporary duty (TDY) status to facilitate evacuation.

(3) I deem overnight lodging for evacuees as mission essential. Evacuees are required to save and produce receipts for lodging, transportation, and any expense over $75. Valid expenses will not exceed normal per diem rates found in the Joint Travel Regulation. For an expense to be reimbursable, the period of use or procurement must occur after the issuance of this order and within the stated period of time authorized in the subsequent revocation order. Individuals cannot claim lodging expenses if they stay with relatives or friends. No reimbursement of any kind will be paid by the Army if individuals choose to ignore this evacuation directive and remain in their homes during the storm.

(4) Upon revocation of this order, detailed guidance will be issued regarding allowances and claims, and Units and Organizational Leaders will prepare relevant orders and begin reimbursement activities. The Garrison RMO/Division G8 will provide an evacuation fund cite once it becomes available.

2. Revocation. This evacuation order expires upon my official revocation of the order.

3. POC for this action is the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate at (912) 767-0475.
