

Airbus Americas Final Assembly Line

AIDT was established in 1971 to build a healthy state economy, and is an independent agency under the Department of Commerce, which encourages economic development through job-specific training. Services are offered in many areas to new and expanding businesses throughout the State, with training centers in Decatur, Montgomery, Tuscaloosa, Lincoln, Huntsville, Calvert and Mobile. Job-specific pre-employment and on-the-job training programs are provided. The program provides a full range of customized technical training programs that are offered at no cost to employers or to the trainees. In addition to training, AIDT offers services including trainee recruitment and screening, safety assistance, industrial maintenance assessments and continuous improvement/process improvement assessments. Leadership training programs are also available.

Dining:

Across the Gulf Coast one can find a delightful array of cuisines to choose from. The Causeway alone offers fresh local seafood, crawfish, BBQ and Tex-Mex style restaurants with a waterfront view. Within town, Southern cuisine, fine dining, Cajun and other cuisines from around the world can be easily accessed.

Schools:

Both Mobile and neighboring Baldwin counties have education high on the priority list. Multiple pathways to graduation, including Signature Academies, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate programs, career-technical education, special-education programs and intervention for struggling students are offered.

Housing:

As Mobile and Baldwin Counties grow, new subdivisions, apartment complexes and condos are being added. Many subdivisions have lake access, beach access, ponds or a bay view. Downtown offers apartments and lofts above storefronts, a perfect view for Mardi Gras parades.
