Communicating with Schools During Transition

Before you move:

- Can you register your child prior to arriving?
- What forms and documents are needed to register?
- Is it possible to register on-line?
- Will my child be able to remain in their school if registered with a temporary address?
- Do they conduct a youth sponsorship program?
- What are the requirements for special education services?
- Are there deadlines for extracurricular try-outs? (sports, theater, etc.)
- What are the immunization requirements?
- Are there specific graduation requirements?
- What is the school schedule/cycle?
- What are the beginning and ending dates for the school year?
- High School – are they on a block schedule?
- High School – compare graduations requirements of your current and new school to identify any conflicts
- Research zones for schools and bus routes

Once you arrive at your new duty station:

- What is the daily schedule?
- What are the grading periods (6wk, 9wk, 12wk, or 18wk)?
- Does the school participate in a grading system parents can access?
- What is the attendance policy?
- What are the standardized testing procedures and requirements?
- Communicate with the new school regarding any course substitutions that might be needed to meet course graduation requirements.

Other Transition Considerations:

- Let the school know of upcoming deployments or additional transitions
- Discuss concerns about transition that both your child and you might have with school personnel
- Provide the school behavioral changes they should be aware of indicating challenges with transition
