

The United States Postal Service will no longer accept any article bearing a handwritten customs form.

- You can prepare an electronic customs form without postage at home (recommended) or here at the APO:

<http://cfo.usps.com>

- With a usps.com account you can prepare an electronic customs form including postage (one label for everything) at home (recommended) or work. (not currently available at the APO)

<http://cns.usps.com>

You can print your electronic customs form on regular bond paper.
APOs have clear envelopes that will hold your form and affix to your parcel.

