Communication key to care on, off post

Wiesbaden Army Health Clinic

The Wiesbaden Army Health Clinic Patient Centered Medical Home is accredited by The Joint Commission. Each patient enrolled to the clinic is assigned a primary care manager on one of the PCMH teams (Blue or White). In the PCMH model, patients have a health care team that knows their medical needs, takes care of their needs, and coordinates with other health care delivery teams to provide the best quality care. PCMH staff includes the primary care manager (a physician, nurse practitioner or physician assistant), registered nurses, medics, clinical pharmacists, and an integrated behavioral health consultant.

The clinic also offers a variety of other services in different locations across Clay Kaserne:

Bldg. 1040

- Medical and Dental Clinic
- Primary Care
- Optometry
- X-ray
- Lab
- Soldier Medical Readiness Cell
- Patient Administration
- TRICARE

Bldg. 1041

- Family Advocacy Program
- Educational and Developmental Intervention Services (EDIS)

Bldg. 1526

- Outpatient Behavioral Health

Bldg. 1201

- Army Wellness Center
- American Red Cross
- Physical Therapy

Patient satisfaction and feedback

Patients are encouraged to provide feedback, positive and negative, to allow clinic staff to continually improve patient experience and satisfaction with their care. Patients can use the following methods to provide feedback.

- Joint Outpatient Experience Survey (JOES): Approximately 72 hours after an appointment, patients will receive a survey to complete by mail or electronically.
- Interactive Customer Evaluation (ICE): Patients can complete an ICE card or submit ICE comments online at <https://ice.disa.mil/>.
- Patient Advocate: Located in the TRICARE Service Center, advocates can be reached at 06371-9464-1361 or DSN 590-1364.

Access to care

It is extremely important all active duty military and their command-sponsored Family members enroll in TRICARE Prime. Enrollment can be accomplished either at inprocessing or the TRICARE Service Center. One significant benefit to Prime enrollment is the access to care standards that assure patients receive timely, quality care. If timely care is unavailable at the clinic, patients may be referred to Landstuhl Regional Medical Center or to a host nation provider or hospital.

Patients can make appointments by using TRICARE Online at www.tricareonline.com or by calling Central Appointments at 06371-9464-5762.

Access to care standards

Acute Care - 24 hours
Routine Care - 7 calendar days
Specialty Care - 28 calendar days

Virtual tools

The below tools are available to patients to schedule appointments, access information, communicate with their care teams, or to seek guidance.

TRICARE Online

www.tricareonline.com

- Make, reschedule or cancel appointments.
- The blue button allows patients to view their health information, including lab and radiology results, medications, immunizations and more.
- To refill prescriptions, click on the Rx refill button, select which medications to refill, select the pharmacy location, and then submit. The refill will be ready the following business day.

RelayHealth

app.relayhealth.com

- Healthcare teams can register patients during their appointments.
- Allows secure communication between patients and their primary care manager or team. Best for non-emergent communication.
- Patients can consult with their PCMH or care team, request an appointment, request prescription renewal, and request lab or test results.
- Currently, 32 percent of patients are enrolled in RelayHealth.
- Once registered, users must reply to an email to activate RelayHealth.

Patient liaisons

Wiesbaden Army Health Clinic has host nation patient liaisons available to assist U.S. beneficiaries hospitalized in host nation medical facilities. Patient liaisons can be reached at 0162-270-7743 or 0162-297-1057/7746.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

The Wiesbaden clinic does not provide emergency care. For medical emergencies, go to the nearest hospital, dial 112 off post, or call the MP station at DSN 114.

Note: Patients with behavioral health crises, pediatric emergencies, and eye emergencies should not go to APK. These patients should go to the emergency room at HSK or Uni Klinik Mainz.

Host nation patient liaisons can:

- Help plan transfers from military treatment facilities to host nation medical facilities or from host nation facilities to military medical facilities by civilian ambulance or privately owned vehicle.
- Ease language barriers between the patient and host nation providers and provide the patient with a copy of the U.S. Army Europe Medical Phrase Book.
- Talk to host nation physicians to get up-to-date information on patients' medical conditions and treatment plans.
- Answer questions about treatment, environment of care, and follow-up care to the best of their knowledge, or when doctors are unavailable.

- Assess and interpret patient concerns to determine specific assistance needs.
- Conduct follow-up visits to assess treatment progress or plans for the patient's transfer to other hospitals or military treatment facilities.
- Assist with the discharge of a patient from a host nation hospital.
- Provide local resources for medical supplies and pharmacies.
- Per request, accompany patients on their first visits to host nation providers.

Pet owners should be aware of local laws

Emily Jennings

USAG Wiesbaden Public Affairs

Anyone who's brought a pet overseas has already jumped through several hoops — making sure they're micro-chipped and vaccinated, obtaining a health certificate and complying with airline regulations. But once here, there are still some things pet owners must take care of and some laws to be aware of.

Pet owners living on post or off must register their pets at the Veterinary Treatment Facility on Clay Kaserne within two weeks of arriving in Germany, said Capt. Melissa Dugan, DVM, officer in charge at the VTF. Failure to register with the garrison could potentially result in hundreds of euros in overdue registration fees if caught. The good news is, it's free to register pets with the garrison and it only needs to be done once at the duty station where the pet resides.

Pets must have been vaccinated for rabies at least 21 days before arriving in Germany, regardless of age, Dugan said. This applies to pets even from another country within the European Union. A pet purchased outside of Germany in the EU will need a pet passport with current rabies vaccine and microchip information. Airlines may have additional requirements.

The VTF is open to all DoD ID card holders, however, services are limited at this time. Personal pets are secondary to the military working dog mission. The VTF can administer vaccines and health certificates, but is not doing surgeries or boarding. The facility has a very limited number of openings for dental and sick call appointments, but the goal of these types of procedures is for the Veterinary Corps officers and military technicians to maintain their clinical proficiency.

The VTF provides an in-briefing for pet owners, which includes information on off-post veterinarians, boarding, grooming, obedience training and other services.

The clinic is open Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Wednesday from 8 a.m. to noon and Friday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. They are closed federal holidays. Call (0611)143-546-0700 to make an appointment.

Know the rules in Germany

Some German laws that dog owners should be aware of:

1. The use of electrical devices for disciplinary purposes is not allowed.
2. A dog may only be kept in a crate a maximum of two hours per day.
3. Dogs up to 50 cm tall need a minimum of six square meters of floor space, 50 to 65 cm need eight and more than 65 cm need 10.
4. Tie outs must allow a dog to move at least six meters, five meters side-to-side, and be attached so that the dog may go to its dog house, lie down, turn around and move freely without risk of injury. Only wide harnesses or collars that do not tighten themselves can be used. Tie outs are prohibited for dogs that are younger than 12 months, ill or pregnant.
5. If a dog is kept outdoors, it must have a dog house made of thermally insulating material. The dog house must be big enough so the dog can turn around and lie comfortably and keep the shelter warm with its own body heat if there is no heating.
6. At least twice a day, a dog must have at least two hours of contact with its owner or care provider, such as play, walking or dog school.

7. Twice a day for one hour, dogs must have a chance to run freely, if kept in a kennel otherwise.

8. Dogs must be kept on a leash inside developed areas at all times. Outside developed areas, dogs must automatically be put on a leash if other people are approaching. Violating this rule may be punished by fines up to 5,000 euros.

9. Owners must dispose of pet waste properly.

10. During quiet hours between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m., dog owners must ensure neighbors are not disturbed by barking, whining or howling. Outside these hours, dog owners must ensure dog noises last no longer than 10 minutes in a row, or exceed 30 minutes cumulatively per day.

11. Pets are not allowed to run free. The owner may be held liable for any bodily injuries or property damage that the pet may cause. German law imposes strict liability on the owner for damages, regardless of whether the pet is in the possession of the owner. Therefore, it is recommended that pet owners obtain liability insurance.

Avoid paying sales tax with VAT forms

In order to enjoy the benefits of this program, it's important to understand the process for using VAT forms. Sponsors must attend a briefing at the VAT office, Bldg. 1023E on Clay Kaserne. During this initial visit, the sponsor can add Family member names and buy VAT forms. The NF-1 VAT form costs $5 and can be used for purchases up to €2,499.99. Only 10 of these forms can be checked out at a time, but once one is returned, that household is eligible to buy a new one. The NF-1 form is commonly used for purchases like train tickets, short hotel stays, groceries and clothing.

Stacking receipts

Multiple purchases from the same vendor can be put onto a single form, as long as the purchases were made during the same calendar month and the refund is collected before the end of that month. The VAT form must also have been purchased before the date of the first transaction and be valid through the last. Shoppers should beware: some vendors may not fully understand these rules and offer to violate them; however, the customer is ultimately responsible for using the forms properly. If a VAT form is used improperly, the customer must correct it by paying the tax, said Clifford Wix, program manager for the VAT/UTAP office.

Purchases over €2,500

The NF-2 VAT form costs $65 and is for purchases of €2,500 or more — like a car, for instance. Before an NF-2 can be issued, certain requirements must be met. "We need a quote showing what's being purchased and how much it would cost without the tax," Wix said. The buyer also needs to show they are capable of making the payment in full, he added. "That can be done one of two ways. One is with a cashier's check, if they're basically buying it straight out. They can also get a letter of intent, or a loan letter, showing that they're approved to finance the full amount without tax." "You cannot pay or negotiate before you have the VAT form and still receive tax relief," Wix said. "You can get a cost assessment, but if you put down any money at the time — if you pay one penny down — then we can't issue that VAT form." Another thing to be aware of when making big purchases is that a customer cannot split up items from the same vendor made on the same day in order to use NF-1 forms instead of an NF-2. For example, if someone purchases a bed for €1,500 and a couch for €2,000 from the same store on the same day, they cannot use one NF-1 form for the bed and another for the couch, regardless of what the vendor says. Only one NF-2 form can be issued at a time, and it does not count against the 10 outstanding NF-1 forms.

Keep in mind

There are several items shoppers should keep in mind before using their VAT forms. The agreement between the German and American governments doesn't force all stores to offer tax relief. "They can accept VAT forms, but there's no law requiring shops accept them on the German side. It's voluntary based on the vendor," Wix said. Each VAT form has several sheets of carbon copies. The vendor keeps the yellow copy and the shopper should keep two copies; the pink one for their personal records and the white one to turn in at the drop box located just outside of the VAT office. Forms are good for two years from the date issued, but they don't work retroactively. "If you bought something yesterday and didn't have the VAT form, you couldn't get a VAT form today and get the tax off for the day before," Wix explained. Tax relief is a benefit to military living overseas; however, violating the VAT rules can result in a loss of money, and in more extreme cases revocation of VAT privileges. The VAT office aims to prevent the latter. "When in doubt about when you can or cannot use a VAT form, call the VAT office," Wix said. "We have the regulations here in the office on a lot of the grey areas."

The U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden VAT office is located in Bldg. 1023 East, Room 151, and can be reached at (0611) 143-548-9107- <https://wiesbaden.armymwr.com/programs/value-added-tax-vat>

License needed to drive on, off post

Emily Jennings

USAG Wiesbaden Public Affairs

U.S. military personnel, civilian employees and Family members who plan to operate a privately owned vehicle while stationed in Germany will need a U.S. Forces Certificate of License, or USA-REUR license. This license allows drivers to drive on and off post within Germany by passing a written test, proving they understand the road rules and signs.

The test can be taken in person or online. Either way, the driver will need to bring documentation to the Drivers Training and Testing Station on Clay Kaserne and pay the required $20 fee for the license, said Michael Leyba, transportation specialist at the DTTS.

Once a driver passes the test, they are eligible for a temporary license. The permanent license will be mailed to the driver's CMR address within 60 days and is valid for five years, when signed and accompanied by a valid stateside license for the same class of vehicle, said Hans-Peter Moosberger, driver's training instructor at the DTTS.

Authorization to drive a POV in Germany is a privilege, not a right, as outlined in the Driver's Handbook and

What you need

Please have the following items and information available when attending orientation and training for a driver's license:

- Valid stateside license or any other valid civilian or country driver's license.

- DoD ID card
- Sponsor's social security number and DoD ID card number
- $20 check, money order, credit card or debit card (no cash)
- Glasses or contacts (if needed to pass eye test)

- Unit (Company, Battalion, Detachment, DoDEA, AAFES, or whatever applies)
- Full CMR address (Must be driver's mailing address, not somebody else's or a unit address)
- DSN (Work phone of sponsor) or other contact telephone number

Online

CAC login: Personnel can take the USA-REUR driver's test online at <https://jkodirect.jten.mil/>.

Family member login: Those without a CAC can take the test online at <https://jkodirect.jten.mil/Atlas2/faces/page/login/Login.seam>. Click the link "non-government/sponsored account registration" on JKO's website. Once a user ID and password is received from JKO, users must enter this into JKO to take the test. Search the course catalogue for USA-007 for the course and USA-007B for the test. Users will be prompted to put in their DoD ID number before taking the training and test. NOTE: Family members may not use a sponsor's CAC to log into JKO, as USA-REUR will not accept the scores.

Examination Manual for Germany (AE Pam 190-34/USAFE Pam 31-206). Driving privileges may be withdrawn for offenses committed while operating a vehicle.

Completing the training: The course number and orientation are USA-007 and USA-007B. After taking the test, it will take 48 hours for the DTTS to receive the final score.

Bring the two certificates (USA-007 and USA-007B), a valid ID card, valid stateside or country driver's license and $20 (no cash accepted).

Orientation and test results are valid for 60 days after taking the class and test.

If a driver fails the online test, they can take it again the same day.

Prepare for the test by reviewing the driver's handbook at: www.eur.army.mil/rmv/Drivers_Handbook/default.htm and taking a practice test at www.usareurpracticetest.com.

A current eye test by an optometrist (within 60 days) is required for applicants over 65 who are applying for an initial or replacement U.S. Forces Certificate of License.

In person

To take the test in person, customers should attend one of the regularly scheduled orientation and testing times: Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 7:25 a.m. in Bldg. 1023W, Room 324 on Clay Kaserne. The DTTS is closed on German and American holidays.

No appointment is necessary, but the DTTS can be reached at (0611) 143-546-6077/6076 for further information.

If a driver fails the test, they may retake it the next day the testing is offered, arriving at 10:30 a.m. (skipping the orientation).

Prepare for the test by reviewing the driver's handbook at: www.eur.army.mil/rmv/Drivers_Handbook/default.htm and taking a practice test at www.usareurpracticetest.com.

International license required outside Germany

U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden
Public Affairs

Defense Department personnel stationed in Germany need an international driver's license, in addition to a U.S. Forces Certificate of License (also known as a USA-REUR license) and a valid stateside driver's license to drive outside the country.

Applicants should ensure they have the proper documentation in hand when they go to the USAG Wiesbaden Drivers Training and Testing Station before their next road trip.

"For incoming personnel and Family members the priority is to get a U.S. Forces Certificate of License, to operate a privately owned vehicle on and off installations in Germany," said Hans-Peter Moosberger, driver's training instructor at the DTTS.

However, at the start of every POV orientation Wiesbaden's instructors tell students to not delay getting their IDLs, and obtaining the signed application from their office is the first step.

"Every student who completes the POV orientation here, passes the written test and receives their permanent certificate of license should return to our offices for an IDL application if they plan to drive outside Germany's borders," Moosberger said.

An IDL can't be obtained using the temporary certificate of license issued immediately after passing the written test.

To apply, visit the Wiesbaden DTTS located on Clay Kaserne, Bldg. 1023W, Room 324. Applicants should bring their USA-REUR license and a valid stateside license. The application must be completed in person and signed by DTTS personnel. It takes approximately 10 minutes. No appointment is required; however, applicants can call ahead to determine staff availability at (0611) 143-546-6076/6077.

Next, bring the signed application, a single passport photo, your U.S. Forces Certificate of License, official or tourist passport (red or blue), valid stateside driver's license, Department of Defense ID card and 15 euros to the off-post KFZ-Zulassungsstelle (the German equivalent of the Department of Motor Vehicles) located in Wiesbaden-Schierstein.

"No additional driver's test is required to get an IDL; just some paperwork, valid documentation and 15 euros," said Michael Leyba, transportation specialist at the DTTS.

Some navigation systems may direct drivers past the facility to the "Federal Mogul" building; however, the vehicle entrance to the KFZ-Zulassungsstelle is immediately past the blue sign for "TÜV Hessen Service Center" on the right-hand side of the street. Free parking is available.

"They offer extended evening hours until 6 p.m. on Wednesdays, which makes it a convenient time to visit the facility," Moosberger said.

When entering the building, get a number from the small electronic kiosk in the waiting area. The kiosk screen will read, "Warteticket." Press the orange button with the word "Fahrerlaubnisbehörde." A paper ticket will print with a customer number that begins with the letter "F." Pay attention to the screens on the wall. When the number comes up on the screen, the appointment will be upstairs on the second floor (1. Stock, in German) in the room (Raum) indicated on the screen.

After processing, applicants return downstairs to pay at the "Kassenautomat," a self-service pay station, before the IDL will be issued. The license costs 15 euros and must be paid in cash or with an EC card, no credit cards.

Passport photos can be taken at self-service photo booths located at the food court on Clay Kaserne and the Hainerberg Exchange Mall. A booth is also located in the entrance of the KFZ-Zulassungsstelle, for those who forget to bring one. Four photos cost 5 euros. Don't forget scissors to cut one photo from the page.

The IDL is valid for a maximum of three years, or as long as the accompanying stateside license is valid.

SCHOOL SUPPORT SERVICES: WHAT WE DO

VISION

A driving force for student success

MISSION

Army Child, Youth & School Services programs exist to support military readiness by reducing the conflict between a Soldier's mission requirements and his or her parental responsibilities.

FOCUS

Engage community resources to reduce the impact of relocations and school transition. Provide predictable support services. Identify barriers and develop solutions to ensure academic success. Promote parent and community involvement. Help parents, children/youth, commanders and communities to access resources that facilitate school transitions.

USAG Wiesbaden Public Affairs

Even though Germans are known for being able to speak English, learning to speak their language can greatly enhance the experience of living in Wiesbaden.

Sure, it's possible to get by in Germany without speaking the language, but for those who will be here a while, being able to confidently order food, buy a bus ticket, read signs, ask for directions or just chat with the locals can make for a more enjoyable time.

Many resources can be useful even before moving to Germany, such as online videos, mobile phone apps and software programs, all of which have the advantage of being available at the time or location of the user's choice.

Once here, community members have access to garrison resources, such as the Wiesbaden Library, Army Community Service conversational classes and the University of Maryland University College.

The Wiesbaden Library offers language resources in a variety of formats including audio CDs, books and online learning, said JoAnn Ogreen, supervisory librarian.

She recommends using the new language in real life, whether that be out at a restaurant or at the grocery store. "You have to go out and talk to people in German," she said.

Those interested in the online learning software should set up a user account with the library; then their language database can be accessed at any time, from anywhere in the world. For more information, call (0611)143-548-9821 or visit the library in Bldg. 1029 on Clay Kaserne.

A husband and wife volunteer team hosts free conversation-based classes at ACS. Registration is mandatory, and the classes fill up quickly, said Gigi Wilson, Relocation Readiness Program manager. Classes are held Tuesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in Bldg. 7790, Room 22 on Hainerberg. Call (0611)143-548-9201 to register.

The University of Maryland University College, located in Bldg. 1023 East, Room 12 on Clay Kaserne offers Elementary German I and II and Intermediate I and II.

German certificates are also available, said Anna González, program and National Test Center coordinator with UMUC Europe.

"Soldiers can use their tuition assistance to pay for this Foreign Language Area Studies Certificate. Usually, TA cannot be applied if a Soldier has not been out of AIT for over a year," she explained. "But, TA has a separate pocket of funding designated for host nation language certificates and will pay for the courses that fall under the certificate even if the Soldier graduated from AIT under a year ago."

For more information, visit their office, call (0611)143-548-1316 or email wiesbaden-europe@umuc.edu or visit them on Facebook at UMUC Europe Wiesbaden.

FORMAL/INFORMAL "YOU"

„sie“ and „du“

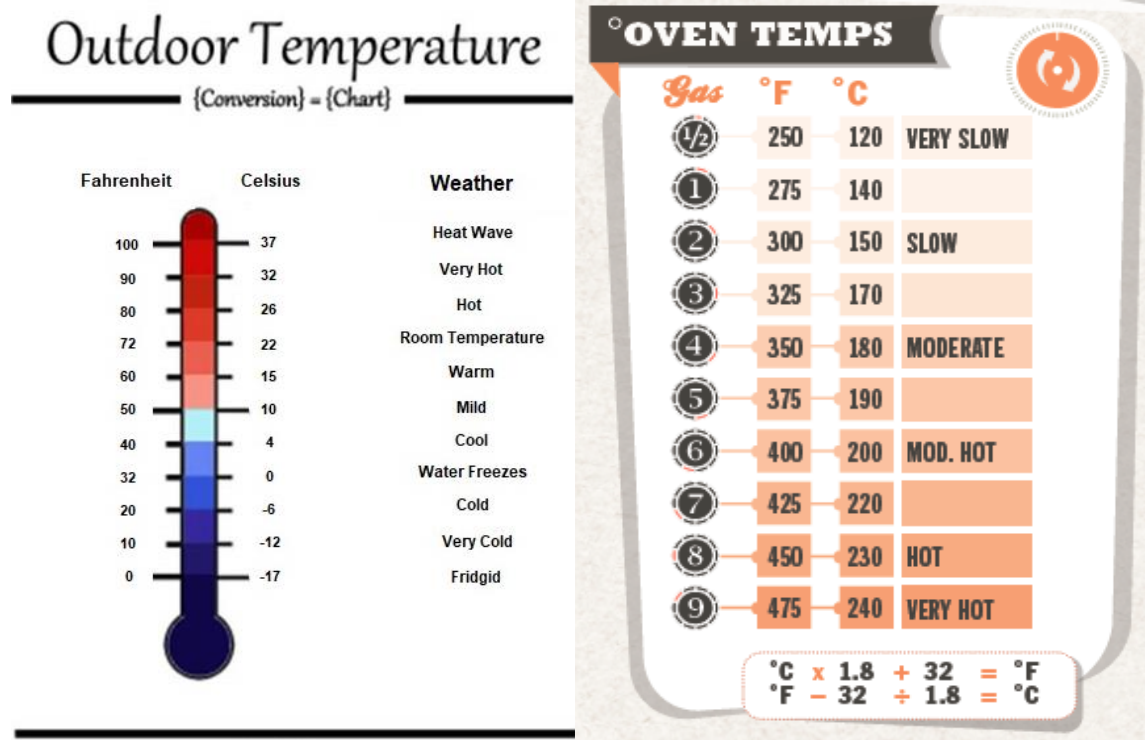

Any statement containing "you" in English can take the formal or informal form in German. The formal is usually used for anyone you don't know and you assume is adult or any professional environment unless you are told otherwise. Informal is used for family, good acquaintances, friends, teenagers or children. People have different ideas of when it is acceptable to use the informal form; for some it takes a day, others take several years, and some may never want to be addressed that way.

Compiled by U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden Public Affairs Intern and native German speaker Eric Wilke.

Hello: Hallo Good morning: Guten Morgen Good afternoon / Good evening: Guten Tag How are you?: Wie geht es Ihnen (formal) / Wie geht es Dir? Wie geht's? (informal) Fine, thanks: Danke, gut And you?: Und Ihnen? (formal) / Und dir? (informal) Goodbye: Auf Wiedersehen Bye: Tschüss Please: Bitte Thanks: Danke Yes: Ja No: Nein	 What's your name?: Wie heißen Sie? (formal) / Wie heißt du? (informal) ß is a German letter that is pronounced like an American s. My name is ...: Mein Name ist ...
Addressing people in German The English "you" can be translated to "Sie" (formal) or "du" (informal) in German. The formal one is usually used for adults who are not well-known and in a professional context. This is a generalized recommendation, and use might vary.	Where are you from?: Woher kommen Sie? (formal) / Woher kommst Du? (informal) I'm American: Ich bin Amerikaner
1st Floor: Erdgeschoss 2nd Floor: 1. Etage / Stock Elevator: Aufzug	 I don't understand: Ich verstehe nicht Slower please: Langsamer bitte My German is not good: Mein Deutsch ist nicht gut I don't know: Ich weiß nicht
A table for two, please: Einen Tisch für zwei, bitte What would you like to drink?: Was möchten Sie trinken? A coffee, please: Einen Kaffee, bitte I don't eat pork: Ich esse kein Schweinefleisch Enjoy your meal: Guten Appetit	Where do you live?: Wo wohnen Sie? (formal) / Wo wohnst du? (informal) I live in Wiesbaden: Ich wohne in Wiesbaden Large, medium, small: Groß, mittel, klein

Metric Conversion Charts

If you start out with two basic facts, you'll do fine with the metric system. First, remember that measurements are based on 100. Second, the prefix "centi" means hundred; "kilo" means thousand. Thus a meter is 100 centimeters; a kilometer is 1,000 meters. Similarly, a kilogram has 1,000 grams; a liter is 100 centiliters, and so on.

Metric → Imperial
Imperial → Metric

 1 inch = 2.54 cm
To convert inches to cms: multiply by 2.54
To convert cms to inches: divide by 2.54

1 gallon = 4½ litres
To convert gallons to litres: multiply by 4.5
To convert litres to gallons: divide by 4.5

 1 Km = 5/8 mile
To convert Kilometres to miles: multiply by 5/8 (0.625)
To convert miles to Kilometres: divide by 5/8 (0.625)

1 litre = 1¾ pints

Conversions for Driving and Car Maintenance

To convert Kilometers into Miles, divide the number of KM by 8 and multiply the result by 5. A simpler method of converting KM into Miles (though not quite as accurate) is easy to do if you follow this rule of thumb: multiply the KM by 6 and drop the last zero.

Ex: 20 KM x 6 = 120, Drop the last 0 = 12, 12 KM = 12 M (approximately)

TAXI service

Phone: Civ (0611) 444-444

There is one authorized taxi company currently servicing U.S. Army installations in Wiesbaden, which is authorized to go to specific posts/Kaserne. If you want a taxi TO PICK YOU UP from Clay Kaserne or Hainerberg Housing, call Taxi Wiesbaden at Civ (0611) 444-444. RATES AND LOCATIONS

Procedures for requesting a taxi

1. Call the taxi company. Tell the Taxi dispatcher you need a taxi driver

“WITH A U.S. INSTALLATION PASS”

(Make this clear several times; this is critical. This is the “key word”; if the driver does not have a pass, he will not be allowed on post.)

2. Specify your pick-up point.

Just saying Wiesbaden is not enough - clearly indicate Clay Kaserne or Hainerberg Housing, Mainz-Kastel Kaserne, etc., AND give a building number.

3. Give them your full name.

4. Give them your phone number. Cell phone preferred

–Specify the time of pick-up.

–Specify destination.

(Preferably in advance, especially if you need to go or come from the airport.)

5. Specify number of passengers

If you are traveling to the airport, report the total number of suitcases. American luggage sizes are larger than European sizes. Also, report how many passengers will be going. This will determine the vehicle or if they have to come with two cars. These companies do not have many vans. If you have small infants, you will need to bring your own child's vehicle safety seat. It is not a requirement for taxi's to provide that.

6. Be prepared to pay in full with euros (€).

Be prepared to pay all taxi drivers in euros. Some taxis do not accept U.S. dollars or any form of credit.

RESERVATION NOTE:

The best thing to do is call in advance and coordinate an appointment in order to get the larger vehicles. All taxis will be searched upon arrival at the installation access control point at any installation, even with U.S. ID cardholders as passengers. Taxi drivers without installation passes CAN NOT be signed in to any U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden installation.
