On behalf of myself, the Regimental Command Sergeant Major, CSM Shawn Klosterman and the Regimental Chief Warrant Officer, CW5 Mark Arnold, we would like to welcome you to the United States Army Military Police School at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

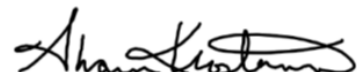

The U.S. Army Military Police School trains a wide range of functional and core courses that provide intense, realistic, and hands-on training to prepare you to accomplish the Army's mission we face today and into the future. Training will be challenging, exciting and provide you the educational opportunities to improve your skills as a Military Police Soldier. Our goal is to enhance our knowledge and provide additional tools necessary to perform your duties at home station and abroad. The Military Police School is focused on providing the Army with trained and adaptive leaders, ready to preserve the force into the future.

Your time here at Fort Leonard Wood will be what you make of it. We encourage you to get to know your classmates and learn from their experiences. Take advantage of every opportunity to develop yourself as a Soldier, professional, and leader. Improve your mental and physical fitness while you are here; ensuring you are ready NOW!

We are confident that you will find the training environment professionally challenging and personally rewarding. We extend our best wishes to you and your Family and look forward to seeing you succeed at the Home of the Regiment!

Preserve the Force!
Army Strong!
