The MILITARY POLICE Journal

November 1951 Volume I Number 4.

If you receive this issue, and you are not a member, you are invited to become a member of the new Military Police Association, for all services, and to secure memberships in your organization or area. As outlined briefly below, something new (in MPC circles) has been added. Copies of this issue of The Military Police Journal are being mailed to Provost Marshals, Military Police units and certain others who normally receive the Training and News Letter, official publication of TPMGC. We hope that you will not only read this issue, but that you will pass it around in your organization, or among MPC personnel, past, present or future. Membership is open to anyone interested in police work or allied activities of the Armed Services, enlisted, commissioned, civilian, male or female. Early in October there were more than 500 members in 20 states, Panama, the District of Columbia, and EUCOM. The interim membership is $2.00. Checks, money orders, for individuals or groups should be submitted with names and addresses to assistant secretary-treasurer, Maj. J.F. Jubeck, S3 Section, TPMGC, or Lt. Col. S. H. Spillner, Chairman, Membership Committee, TPMGS, Camp Gordon, Georgia.

It is believed that a Military Police Association can do a great deal for members of the Corps. You can participate in the association and secure any benefits by sending in your name, address, and the $2.00. Several places are already reporting 100% membership. We will be interested in your reaction to this new association. Future issues of the journal, like those in the past, will be sent only to those who are listed as paid members. Send in your check now. This issue comes to you through the courtesy of present members of the association. They feel that you, too, will want to be a member of this association, which is primarily for Military Police Corps Personnel.

The original announcement regarding the new association was carried in the September Training and News Letter, but in that publication we did not mention the membership fee or give you any idea of what you would receive in The Military Police Journal immediately, or plans for the future. Now that association finances are such that the membership campaign started in September by word-of-mouth and by letter, can be expanded, this message is being sent to key personnel of the Corps.

We are Progressing: This month we take the second big step, in accordance with the plans made in advance for an association publication. More news is being published by a method that enables us to do a better job for a greatly increased membership. We hope that a continued increase in support, by all who are or have been interested in police activities in the Armed Forces will make it possible for us to take the next steps in the plan in rapid succession. When we do take these next steps depends on you, and your activities as a member of the membership committee. (Every member is automatically charged with increasing the membership of the Military Police Association and with submitting, or designating someone in his organization or area to submit news about Military Police Association members and Military Police Corps personnel of the organization or area.

On the basis of a study made before the MPA was organized, it was concluded that (1) members of the MPC wanted an association and a publication. The start was made 26 April 1951 when the members of OA 4, under the leadership of Col. F. E. Howard, organized an association. Following approval of the idea and acceptance of the honorary presidency by Maj. Gen. E. P. Parker, TPMG, on 26 July 1951, the then members of MPA (from OA 4) were notified by letter and preliminary plans made for a membership campaign starting in September. (2) That plans for and activities of the MPA should have a modest beginning and should be improved and increased only as membership and finances warranted. Since there was no way of telling, in spite of the advance survey of representatives of all ranks and components, how much actual support would be forthcoming, if and when an MPA was organized, it was concluded to tailor the suit to the available cloth, and to have a sound plan for growth. (3) That the association should have a publication. A modest start was made with a letter, late in July, to the then members, which announced the approval. Some data on the members of OA 4 was included. Membership totaled 34. In August a two page MILITARY POLICE Journal was sent to the members. An expanded publication was published in Sept. and Oct., but with membership already totaling more than 500 it was decided that the limit for a mimeographed publication would be reached in October. (4) The plan which calls for starting with (a) a mimeographed sheet, is to move successively to (b) a type of reproduction such as is used for the Training and News Letter, TPMGC, (c) then to a printed sheet

Public Relations: Although today there are probably more publications designed for military audience than ever before in the history of the Armed Forces, there did not seem to be any which adequately me the needs of members of the MPC. Throughout the survey made for a study of the need for an association, there were references, direct or implied, to the need for such a publication. A military polic publication we believe should be basically an internal house organ. It should assist in the development of a feeling of unity and cooperation. It could be the means of promoting better understanding, of developing an esprit de corps. It could provide a means of mental stimulation. It could keep mem bers of the Corps informed as to policies, techniques, changes in methods and directives. It should serve to bind the members into a unified, harmonious working group, and help prepare them for any future problems. In addition, it should serve to record, preserve and foster memories, traditions and interesting developments.

From a public relations viewpoint the most important single group is composed of the members of the organization. Good public relations must begin inside and not outside the group. A publication should serve as a good tool in the development of good public relations for the Corps.

Every member of the Corps should be so thoroughly sold on the policies, plans, techniques, and equipment that he will be a crusading defender of his branch at home, over the bridge table, at churcl or luncheon club, or wherever it is good taste to accept a challenge that all are called upon to face at one time or another.

Authorities on the subject point out that first attention should be given to improving relations within an organization, and then delve into the problems of increasing goodwill among the general public. . . and that good morale among members of the group is the foundation of sound public relations.

If a strong and enthusiastic personnel is built up throughout the organization, the goodwill so established will radiate goodwill wherever members go. . .but the problem of selling the organization is often neglected. Selling the organization begins by selling it to the members (and potential members).

The mere presentation of information, however, is not sufficient to develop a satisfied member. More than ever he must be trained to meet ever-changing techniques. This can be accomplished through various publicity media, one of which is the house organ. We hope that a start has been made and through your efforts we can build an organization and a publication worthy of the name, which will not only be of value to you as an individual member, and to the unit to which you belong, but also to the Corps to which we all owe allegiance. The job is not that of any one man. It is the job of every member of the Corps and the final result will reflect in the training and actions of every man in the Corps, or wearer of the MP, SP, or AP brassard, or Coast Guard insignia, down to the last private.

Advertising: Almost 70 per cent of those queried before the MPA was started were in favor of including advertising. Another group, about 6 per cent of the total, wanted to limit the advertising. Most of those who favored the acceptance of advertising, did so with the qualification that they were interested in reducing the costs of the publication to the subscriber. Many were interested in doing so, in order that the publication might have a wider circulation, particularly among enlisted personnel. Acceptance of the Military Police Journal by advertisers will depend primarily on circulation. We hope you will help build the membership so that we can consider the problem of a printed publication and of advertising. (3,000 members will enable us to do a real job.)

similiar to a post newspaper, but folded 8½x11" and then to (d) a magazine of a size warranted by the membership and finances at the time. The ultimate goal to be something like the ROYAL MILITARY POLICE JOURNAL published in England. The new membership card is shown below.

With the above developments it is planned to have a lead article each month, by some member of the Corps or other authority, on a subject of interest to the members, but to concentrate on news about the members and the organizations to which they belong. Our program is based on "the names make the news" philosophy which results in small town newspapers being thoroughly read.

From the original 34 members the MPA expanded to 100 by the end of August, and to 262 by 29 Sept. On 5 Oct. having mailed practically all of the 500 copies published, additional copies were produced to take care of members who sign up before the additional supply is exhausted. Those who become members in time will secure the Oct. issue in which publication of the alphabetical list of MPC commissioned personnel, on EAD, was started. It is regretted that those who have joined since the Sept. issue was published missed the list of all MPC temporary promotions for 1951 (to that date) and other features such as a list of all OA graduates and their present location. No extra copies of the back issues are available and if you fail to join now you may miss other interesting bits of information. We don't believe you'll want to miss these coming issues!

Capt. J.C. Gunn, former associate editor of the Training and News Letter, is now editor. Col. H.B. Emigh is being assigned to TPMGC. Major J.S. McKelly, AEC, has been alerted for overseas.

100% Membership: Lt Col. C.M. Westrup, Nebraska, and Lt. Col. H.S. Hayward, California, report 100% membership in the MPA for their ROTC staffs. Col. Westrup is now ready to work on Reserve units in his area. This is an excellent idea. We would also like to enroll cadets as members!

PMGC Tops Them: Sandia's post paper boasts that that is where the Army, Navy and Air Force meet. At Gordon, not only the Army, Navy and Air Force are training together for Police work, but also the Coast Guard, Marines and certain civilians.

Associations: The U.S. Cavalry Association was formed in 1885, the first of the branch associations. The U.S. Cavalry Journal was started by the association in 1888, first of the branch journals. Both have since been amended in name to the Armored Cavalry. The magazine is Armor.

Someone has asked where to send the news! Send it to the MPA, TPMGC, attention to the editor, treasurer, chairman of the membership committee, or the president. Regardless of to whom your letter is addressed here, if it is for the association, it will get to the proper place, just send it along. At Third Army a recommendation has been made to the PM that a certain outstanding Sgt. be appointed correspondent for that group. This is what we'd like to have in each unit or area. If you don't find the news that you'd like to read in these columns, it is probably because you and others have not sent in anything, except maybe memberships. (They are appreciated.)

"Hard Labor," says a training film on rehabilitation, is "useful work," but the term "hard labor" will continue to be used since some prisoners are sent to Federal prisons.

Battle Honors: Recently 9 battle streamers were placed on the colors of the 504th MP Bn., at a ceremony. Has your unit a greater number of battle colors? Let's hear.

Enlisted Personnel: The potential of the MPA is with the men of the Corps. Coverage of them and their activities will be built up as they join and make the news available.

AR 1-210 authorizes membership in private associations so long as you do not violate the Hatch Act, anti-lobbying law, etc. You need not hold back. Join the MPA now.

MP in the News: A good photo of an MP appears on page 19 of Collier's for 20 October.

OA 5: Lt. Col. W.E. Thiessen is now in Walter Reed for treatment. AA 11 Capt. W.H. Floyd has been alerted for FEC. Capt Richard Bell is a member of Ga. Legislature. OA 4: Lt. Col. K.K. Kolster now has orders for Panama, instead of FEC as reported. OA 3: Lt. Col. C.H. Sullivan is intelligence and Security officer of the large PW Camp in Korea.

RA MPC List: Added: PL 8666 R.H. Ward, Maj. 9-14-50 No. 295½; 13746 Brandeburg, Capt. 9-27-50, No. 379½ (listed in Sept.) 2Lt C.R. Haydon D/R 6-14-51 No. 466½; Transferred to Inf. Capt. Markonounis No. 403. Total now 385. Complete list soon, 50 cents.

"Man to Man:" This spicy magazine for Dec-Jan has an article, "Female Spies are Obsolete," This tells of Kim Suim, who was shot by the South Koreans outside Seoul. Allegedly once employed by the Americans, mention is made in the article of the U.S. PMO in Korea.

Mobile Editor: Mr Earl Britt, editor of the Mobile (Ala.) Post on reading about the new MPA in the Air University Dispatch wrote to General Parker for full information. He stated that there had been a need for such an organization for many years and that police work was becoming a profession. Gen. Parker concurred and forwarded the letter to Col. Spillner for the usual splendid $64 treatment "Sig" gives all prospective members. We've had letters resulting from many, many publications -- from West Point to Sheppard Air Force Base. Interest is running high day by day as the news spreads of this new organization for which many have long expressed a desire, but which no one got around to doing anything about until 1951. See application blank on page 8.

My Experiences in the World War, by General of the Armies John J. Pershing, Commander-in-Chief, American Expeditionary Forces, Volume I, 1931, pp 132-133, has this to say about MPs in World War I. "The maintenance of good order among our troops under the peculiar conditions of the service in France was most important and for this purpose a military police was essential. Such a force, under the control of The Provost Marshal General, corresponded to a police department in a well organized city, except that the jurisdiction included only those in the military service. The British, in a situation similar to our own, gave us much helpful information regarding their system, which, with slight modifications, was adopted for our armies. In our previous wars, the Provost Guard, so called, usually consisted of troops of the line detailed for the purpose but without any special training for such duty. Colonel Hanson E. Ely was selected to organize the police corps and made a good beginning in laying the foundation but, at his own request, he was shortly relieved and sent to regimental duty. His successor, Colonel W.H. Allaire, became Provost Marshal General until the following July, when he was relieved by Colonel J.C. Broome. In September, 1918, Brigadier General H.H. Banholtz, on account of his special fitness for such work from his experience as Chief of Constabulary in the Phillipine Islands, became the permanent head of the Corps. Due credit must be given to each of these officers but particularly to Banholtz for the smart appearance and high efficiency of the military police. Its services were indispensable in directing and handling traffic during combat activities, in preventing straggling and in maintaining order among scattered groups of our armies both before and after the Armistice. The organization on November, 1918, numbered 463 officers and 15,912 men, spread practically over the whole of France."

More NG MP Units to AD: Plans have been announced to call several additional NG Divs. to active duty. They include the 37th Inf. Div. (Ohio) whose 37th MP Co. was (the last we knew) commanded by Maj. R.H. Underwood (OA-2); the 44th Inf. Div. whose MPs (the last we knew) were commanded by Capt. W.E. Kelley; and probably the 42nd Inf. Div. of New York whose MP Company has won the "Eisenhower Trophy" three straight years (See Aug. '51 Training and News Letter) Lt. Col. Abraham Verman is PM of the 42nd and Capt. W.T. Koch is the company commander.

Other NG units: Already on AD are the 163d, (DC); 168th (Tenn) 171st (DC); 174th (Kansas); 175th (Missouri) all Bns. Lt. Col. S.F. Blackwell of the 171st is in AA 11, Lt. Col. R.C. Richardson of the 174th was recently detailed in MPC and Lt. Col. B.A. Schmitz formerly of the 175th is now with OCAFF. Companies on AD are: 28th going to Eucom; 31st (Ft. Jackson); 40th (Japan); 43rd going to Eucom; 45th (Japan); 47th Cp. Rucker. We welcome news of all Military Police units.

Fifty Miles Behind the Lines: Cpl. R.E. Baker, MP Traffic platoon, 187th RCT was recently awarded a Silver Star for gallantry in action! A 1948 graduate of TPMGS, Baker voluntarily parachuted behind enemy lines in Korea with several others and secured valuable information. He is one of a number of Military Policemen who have been honored for their work.

New Record: M Sgt W.H. Edkins, (1st Sgt 505th MP CO, Chaffee Cp.) set a new post record recently with 342 of a possible 350 with a .45 caliber pistol. Can anyone top this?

M Sgt. R.J. Noonan, formerly of Ft. Benning, has been appointed as news reporter MP Journal by the PM, Hq. Third Army. Lt. Col. Walkup, G2, Fort Jackson, has been alerted for overseas.

Boston Chairman: Col. J. Perry Smith was recently elected chairman of the Military Police Committee of Boston. They sent out an excellent letter to prospective members.

TV is now being used for training by the Army. Officers and men should also be familiar with Facsimile transmission etc. This method will probably be used for transmitting overlays and other information in future emergencies. A special method is being tested.

Reclassification Plan: The Air Force (USAF is no longer used, it is Regular Air Force etc. now) is testing a plan to properly classify reservists not on AD. In Dallas they have 49 interviewers personally calling on reservists. In San Francisco questionnaires are being tried for the same purpose. The RAF (Sounds like England) is interested in present physical condition, education or training completed since the war, etc. They recently recalled a mechanic and found he was now a qualified dentist. What happen?

For Speeches: Early data on Atomic energy The Biblical account of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah read in certain respects like the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki (A.D. 1945). The agent of destruction wrought such havoc that the "smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace." (Gen. 19-24,28) Micah foresaw that in the divine execution of an impending judgement, heat and disintegrating forces would be so intense that the "mountains shall be molten" and the "Valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire" (Mic. 1:4). Isaiah added that at such a time the heavens shall be "dissolved" and the "earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard" (Isa. 24:20, 34:4). Something for your speeches.

OA 1: Maj. R.R. Love, on duty with AFSWP since completing OA 1, in England since 19 May is S2, 1st Aviation Field Depot Squadron. He transferred to USAF. Good Publicity: Photo of MP on front page of Army Times 29 Sept. This publication also says Physical Profile plan is to be extended to officers. A-N-AF Journal announced Maj. S.S. Bulchie as PM, Fort Campbell, Ky. and gave brief mention of the MPC birthday party sponsored by Lt. Col. P.P. Boas (OA 4) and the 523rd MP Co. at Aberdeen.

374th MP Co. took top honors in Camp Roberts' first Safe Driver's Award Contest. Major J.E. Farmer, 23rd CID, Tokyo was awarded the Legion of Merit; WOJG R.J. Major has joined the MP CID; the 26 man Camp Roberts MP town patrol under SFC Roy Mort and PM Lt. Col. Phillip Hill (OA 4) got a wonderful writeup in Army Times for 6 Oct. very good publicity; J.C. Edwards, after six months as a private in the 1st Armored Division's 501st MP Co. (Lt. Col. E.L. Edwards, OA 4,PM), has received his commission as a 2Lt. Maj. Gen. H.J. Collins, 8th Div. CG, paid tribute to Ft. Jackson MPs at a luncheon commemorating the 10th anniversary. The 163rd MP Bn., 171st MP Bn., and 5010 ASU MP participated in a review to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Corps at Fort Custer. Ft. Lewis MPs entertained staff officers and leading law enforcement officers of the vicinity at a luncheon and open house in celebration of the 10th anniversary; also celebrating the 10th anniversary were the MPs at Camp Irwin's Armored Combat Training Area. The 374th MP Co. took part in a surprise alert problem at Camp Roberts.

Police Court News: One of the features of the New York Sun (started 3 Sept. 1833) which made it immediately popular was its police court report. The humorous treatment of police-court news was a journalistic technique first utilized by the London Morning Herald. Police court in New York in those days was held at 4 A.M.

An Advisory Committee for the MPA has been authorized by action of the Executive Council. Prominent persons in police work and former general officers and others who have served as PMs in the past will be invited to become members. It was decided that the MPA year will start 1 Oct. for membership dues. Those who joined prior to 1 Oct. 1951 will get something for "free." By vote the MPA was declared a non-profit organization. Other matters discussed were those of incorporation, audits, bonding of a treasurer. The emblem committee under chairman Maj. C.L. Scott will meet to select a recommended emblem and consider awarding a prize to the designer.

The average age of the American soldier in World War I was 24 years, 10 months, in World War II, 25 years, 8 months, and today it is an even 24 years. And you?

Navy and Marine Corps Representative: Col. E.S. Laue, USMC, Head, Corrective Services Branch, Department of the Navy's Bureau of Naval Personnel not only accepted an honorary vice presidency but sent in his membership fee. He said in part: "The plan for such an association is definitely needed. The . . . news letter will be of interest and beneficial." Welcome aboard!

Capt. Geo Epsom, PM, 10th Div. caught a man who with two buddies allegedly bilked soldiers of $3000 in crooked payday card games. Army Times gave big play to Ft. Jackson's "Rehab" unit. A great deal of credit for establishing the detachment has been given to Maj. M.L. Smith, asst. post PM. Among the units for which insignia has been approved by Heraldic Sec., OQMG, are 91st MP Bn., and 519th MP Bn. The 720th MP Bn., and Tokyo PMO held open house for 10th birthday. The Karlsruhe Military Sub-post now has patrols which include German, French and American representatives according to Maj. T.F. Griffin, PM. They are competing with Vienna where representatives of four governments ride in each patrol. Imagine having three desk sgts to face instead of the usual one.

Col. R.T. Chaplin, PM FEC, sends in orders in which Col. R.R. Ramsey, then asst. PM 8th Army was awarded the Legion of Merit and Lt. W. R. Prichard the BSM. Also news of the completely equipped mobile post exchange which the 772d MP Bn, has set up for the benefit of their widely spread companies. The railroad car PX takes in about $40,000 monthly in Korea. Cpl. J.M. White, Co. A, 720th MP Bn., is a member of the Gallon Club of blood donors in Tokyo. The 25th Div. has handled 25,000 PWs without a single escape. While fighting guerrillas around Taejon the 25th captured 12,186 prisoners. During 1950 more than 1,400 agents of CID, CIC, OSI, ONI, etc., plus other military and civilians received from one to seven hours indoctrination in activities of the CI Laboratory in Japan. Latest member of the MPA is Julia Hornsby, US MCR, who was chief chemist of the CI Lab, FEC for sometime.

Crimes in America rose 5.1% in the cities and 4% in the rural areas in the first half of 1951 compared with the same period in 1950 - according to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover. "More persons 23 years of age were arrested during the first-half of 1951 than any other age group. Auto thefts rose 18.6% in the cities and 20% in the rural areas . . ."

Camp Roberts: News items submitted to Lt. Col. P.H. Hill, PM, tells of the anniversary review by 380 members of the 505th MP Bn., and 374th MP Co., followed by informal gathering and lunch at 374th MP Club. In the afternoon open house was held at the 505th MP Bn. area. Thirty representatives of law enforcement agencies within a 100-mile radius attended.

The Purpose of the MP Association is to advance the science and art of police administration and Crime prevention and to preserve and foster the spirit of fellowship among former, present and future law enforcement personnel and any other persons interested in police work.

Membership in the association shall be open to all civilians and members of the Armed Services who are engaged in law enforcement work, civilian or military, or who are interested in perpetuating the objectives of the association. Get one! Each member is charged with getting at least one new member within the next 30 days. Those who are trying for top honors in the contest are really getting into some hot competition now.

Employee of PM at Dachau was one of the first five Stateless Europeans to enlist in the U. S. Army under the Alien Enlistment Act. Michael Daradan, 26, born near Moscow, served as a volunteer with the U.S. Fourteenth Armored Div. and the Ninth Infantry Div. After V-E Day, Recruit Daradan, who knows five languages, was an interpreter for the Dachau War Crimes Commission and more recently for the Provost Marshal at Dachau. The five recruits were photographed when they reported to the Senthofen Depot.

Enlisted Personnel: Many enlisted men became officers during wartime and emergencies such as confront us today. In fact the National Guard found that about one-third of its entire pre-war membership held officers status at the end of World War II. As stated by one officer, we must depend on enlisted men for the officers of the future, particularly in the case of a sudden emergency. The conclusion therefore, was that membership in the MPA should be open to enlisted personnel, preferably without limitation, and that definite steps should be taken to make enlisted personnel an integral part of the organization and to make membership a stepping stone to future advancement and a greater contribution to the Corps and to National Defense.

What do Associations do? "Branch associations foster the traditions of their respective arm or service. This is done by means of meetings, publications, and other services. Probably the most important benefit provided to the membership by association is the journal." Cadet W. M. Snyder, University of Texas, 1949.

Have you sent in news for the December issue?

AR 35-1320: Deletion of par. 4, in 1950, of this regulation concerning military pay, made it possible for association publications, with editors who were on active duty, to accept paid advertising. The paragraph had been the result of a clause of the appropriation act for the Army since 1931, which was dropped by Congress in 1950. A bigger membership and circulation must come first.

Capt. W. H. Brandenburg, S/F TPMGS, was a graduate in Public Relations Class No. 1, AIS. Maj E. K. Marx is on the sick list. 701st MP Bn has 10 officers as students. TPMGS now, says Col. Slob, CO.

MPC Officers on EAD: Work has been started on the reproduction for distribution through PMs of major commands of the list, by rank, of all MPC officers on EAD. This list will contain the names being published in MP Journal alphabetically. This will be an official publication and will not be available through any source except PMs of major commands. It should not be confused with MPC-RA list mentioned previously which will be available only through the MPA.

Permanent Promotions: In the Aug. MP Journal we predicted that those eligible for permanent Lt Col would include G. Hill with promotion list No. 5230. This is correct according to the current Army-Navy-Air Force Journal which gives the cutoff number as 5245. In Sept. we predicted that those eligible for permanent major would include 9456 Hilliard. That 9578 V. Johnson would not be considered until 1953. The actual cutoff number is 9597 which includes Johnson. Consideration of permanent Lieuts. will go to 14957 they say. This will include the following according to our unofficial records: 372-14307 Tross; 373-14324 Coburn; 374-14350 Miller; 375-14382 Dunn, P; 376-14384 Anderson, C; 377-14394 Posich; 378-14399 DuBois; 379-14889 Yowell; 380-14903 Walpole; 381-14921 Herring; 382-14929 Jacobson; and 383-14950 Vance. Permanent colonels will not be sleleted until spring.

The basic service date for Lt. Col. No. 5245 is July 4, 1935 or almost 17 years of promotion list service by promotion time in 1952; for Major, No. 9597 is March 31, 1941 or about 11 years when promoted in 1952; for Capt. No. 14957 is March 28, 1946 or about 6 years in 1952.

Will Roger's famous speech on traffic direction was given by transcription on Eddie Cantor's program Sunday night 14 Oct. His recommended program for handling traffic is not in any manual but it is very interesting - as his monologues always were. We're trying to get it for you!

Col. Calvin Goddard, now Editor, History Medical Dept. in World War II, should have been referred to last month as the former CO of the CI Lab FEC. Our apologies to member Goddard.

Status of Officers: In reporting on the 1951 appropriation bill the press said in part: "...limits extra flight pay to personnel except those assigned to operational or training duty, prohibits the use of defense funds to sponsor radio or television recruitment programs, and curbs the retirement pay of commissioned officers who retire voluntarily before serving the full period required by law. (This is somewhat different from the amendments as reported in the Sept. Journal.) This was the bill after the committees settled the differences in House and Senate versions.

Army Times for 15 Sept. reported that: "Revision of the 1947 Officer Personnel Act is out of the question this year but that RA colonels and Lieut. colonels who would start to retire 1 July 1953 (under the 30-or-5 and 28 years rules in the act) would be retained on duty. The A-N-AF Journal said decision was being considered. The Times also said that: "On the temporary promotion front, the audited strength figures of 30 June disclosed that the Army had been overpromoting. Preliminary figures for 31 Aug indicate each commissioned grade was just about in line with budget allowances and not below them as thought. Additional temporary promotions are unlikely immediately.

"On the permanent promotion front, the criteria for new selections are likely to be announced soon. (See above-paragraph 4) Priority in consideration by boards will be given to the warrant officer promotion board and the general officer selection board." Probable names to be considered for Lt. Col. and major were given in previous issues of the MP Journal.

With the retirement 31 Oct of Maj. Gen. Schmidt there was one vacancy for a permanent maj. gen. and no waiting list. MG (BG) R.V. Rickard, one time PM, retired the end of Oct. and there are now eleven vacancies for permanent brig. generals, with no waiting list. Other retirements for age will be LG Chamberlain, Dec; LG Leonard, Jan 52; MG Kirk, Feb. 52; LG Morris, Mar 52; LG McLain, Apr. 52; MG Jones, and Macon, July 52; LG Lutes and MG Andrus Oct. 52; LG Pick Nov. 52; and LG Larkin and LG Critterberger Dec. 52. All of these vacancies and expected retirements will not only result in selections and promotions to general officer rank but they will also result in promotions to the rank of colonel. If not selected for promotion to permanent major general the following permanent brigadier generals will be retired for age in 1952: Helmick, Menoher, Graham, Keiser, Irvine, Maris, Church, Beasley, and MacMorland.

Reserve Medal: Regulations covering the award of the Armed Forces Reserve Medal have been approved by the Sec. of Def. The medal will be awarded, with certain limitations, to those who have served honorably and satisfactorily for ten or more years in one or more of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States. Similiar regulations governing Coast Guard personnel will be published after approval by the Sec. of the Treasury. The new medal was authorized by Executive Order No. 10163. When available the medals will be distributed on application. Don't ask yet.

Can you define minimum, medium and maximum custody grades? You can if you've had Col. Bergin's course in confinement at TPMGS. The term "garrison prisoners" is no longer used.

Lt. Col. G.E. Painter, OPMG, is being assigned to TPMGC. Capt. Wilson, AA 11, hears he will go overseas. Major D. L. Scanlon is the new S3, of the MP RTC, vice Capt. Alberts.

The Executive Council met 13 November to consider the draft of the constitution. The constitution will be submitted to the membership probably in the December Journal. M Sgt J.E. Cutshall was designated assistant editor at this meeting. He designed the new heading for this issue.

"Will you be Mr. Million?" That's the title of the leading article in This Week for 14 Oct. in which the National Safety Council prediction of the millionth traffic death (in Dec. 1951) is written up in detail. Better read it, and post it as part of your safe driving campaign. It says in part: "Although war is considered the greatest cause of unnatural deaths, America's eight major conflicts since 1775 did not take their millionth victim until the second week of Sept. 1951. Automobile deaths ran almost a dead heat to the Millionth man, although they did not enter the race until 125 years after the battle of Lexington. Even since the beginning of the Korean War, traffic deaths in the U. S. have outrun combat deaths in Korea at a three-to-one ratio." But you can do something about traffic deaths. What have you found effective?

Married: Miss Eileen Howe Pharaoh, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. F.H. Pharaoh, Camp Gordon to Lt. W. P. Hood, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. John Moran, Falls Church. (Col. Moran, OPMG, and his son are on orders to FEC.) Who has recently married in your outfit?

Shakespeare's Warriors: In the works of Shakespeare there were two officers who were Lieutenant Generals even in that day, Canidius, Lieut. Gen. of Anthony, and Taurus, Lieut. Gen. to Caesar, both in "Anthony and Cleopatra." Recruits in Shakespeare's works were: Bullcalf, Feeble, Mouldy, Shadow and Wart. Soldiers were Bardolph, Bates, Court, and Pistol. There were many other military characters.
