

MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Letter or Instruction, Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear (CBRN) Specialist, Military occupational specialty transition (MOS-T) Course, Reserve Component (RC), Phases I-III. Course number: 031-74D10 (R1)

- 1) Overview. The CBRN Specialist MOS-T Course (RC), consists of three phases. Phase I consists of 63 hours of branch specific Distributed Learning (DL) delivered via Blackboard. Phase II is a two week resident training phase branch-specific instruction, conducted at the CBRN School. Phase III a two week resident training phase branch-specific instruction, conducted at the CBRN School. This course is designed to assist in preparing students for Company/BN CBRN NCOs and CBRN Specialist positions.
- 2) General. Students must receive a valid ATRRS reservation through their unit prior to beginning each phase. IAW AR 350-1, the CBRNS MOS-T (RC) follows a 36 month model which includes two 15-day resident periods, and the remainder of time dedicated to completing one branch-specific DL phase. Enlisted Soldiers have the flexibility to complete the DL at home station. The CBRN MOS-T (RC) resident phases as outlined in TRADOC Regulation 350-70 can be completed in a maximum of two active duty training periods across two fiscal years to allow for multiyear funding. Exceptions to this policy may be granted on an individual basis with up to a 12-month extension, upon USACBRNS approval. Students requesting an extension must submit a memorandum signed by the first Colonel (O-6) or above in their chain of command to the CBRN School.
- 3) Phase I Considerations (FLW Blackboard Distributed Learning).
  - a) COURSE ACCESS.
    - 1) After receiving a valid ATRRS reservation, go to <https://cbrn.wood.army.mil/> to self-enroll, and click on the "Courses" tab at the top of the page.
    - 2) Under the "Course Catalog" section select the button labeled "Browse Course Catalog".
    - 3) In the "Search Catalog" section, type "CBRN SPECIALIST" in the search box and click "GO".
    - 4) Select the drop down arrow beside "CBRN Specialist Course Ph1". Once open select "Enroll." This will send an email to the course manager notifying him that you are requesting access to the course. Upon reception of email the course manager will cross reference your request with ATRRS and take the appropriate actions.
    - 5) Students have 11 months to complete Phase I. As a reminder, students must complete Phases I-III within 36 months.

b) PHASE I CREDIT.

- 1) The USACBRN CBRN Specialist Course (RC) POC's listed below will monitor students' progress in Phase I. To complete Phase I, students receive a 70% or higher on each posttest to unlock each module, or the student can receive a 100% on each pretest and forgo course content.
- 2) Weekly, the academic program of record (DTMS) will be updated to reflect students who have completed Phase I. This action will result in an update in ATRRS. Students whose ATRRS record is not updated within 30 days of completion may contact the POC's to inquire as to status.

4) Phase II Considerations (15-day Resident Instruction, CBRN School).

- a) HT/WT will be conducted at 0500 on Day 1 of the course. Failures will be immediately dropped from the course; there will be no retests. Students are not authorized to attend the course on a temporary profile.
- b) Students should report with their 705 from their 30 day record APFT in hand.

5) PHASE III Considerations (15-day Resident Instruction, CBRN School)

- a) Students will need to bring their Army Service Uniform (ASU) for graduation. There will be limited time to have ASU's altered during the course; to ensure that they are within regulation prior to arrival. All students will need to wear pants and loafers (females may not wear skirts). An inspection of ASU's will be conducted.
- b) HT/WT will be conducted at 0600 on Day 1 of the course. Students should report with their 705 from their 30 day record APFT in hand. Failures will be an immediate recycle from the course; there will be no retests. Students are not authorized to attend the course on a temporary profile.
