MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Letter of Instruction, Military Police Captain's Career Course, Reserve Component (MPCCC-RC), Phases I - III

1. Overview. The overall MPCCC (RC) has transitioned to a three phase course. Prior to beginning the MPCCC (RC) phases, student will completed the 75 hours of Common Core Distance Learning (CCDL) material required for all Army officers. This is delivered via the Army Learning Management System (ALMS). Phase I is a two week resident training phase combining common core and branch-specific instruction, conducted at the MP School. Phase II consists of 75 hours of branch specific Distributed Learning (DL) delivered via Blackboard. Phase III is a two week resident phase combining branch specific and common core instruction including the Military Decision Making Process (MDMP) and a Combined Arms Exercise. This course is designed to assist in preparing students for higher level staff and Company Command positions.

2. General. Students must receive a valid ATRRS reservation through their unit prior to beginning each phase. IAW AR 350-1, the MPCCC-RC follows a 13 month model which includes two 15-day resident periods, and 11 months for completing branch-specific DL phases. Officers have the flexibility to complete the DL at home station. The MPCCC-RC resident phases as outlined in TRADOC Regulation 350-70 can be completed in a maximum of two active duty training periods across two fiscal years to allow for multiyear funding. Exceptions to this policy may be granted on an individual basis with up to a 12-month extension, upon USAMPS approval. Students requesting an extension must submit a memorandum signed by the first Colonel (O-6) or above in their chain of command to the MP School.

3. Student Gradebook. There are a total of 1400 academic points available during MPCCC-RC, distributed between the 4 phases (see Table 2 to Appendix C of CATD ISAP). Students must receive a "GO" for each critical event in order to graduate each phase. In order to be eligible for academic recognition on the Commandant's list, as Honor Graduate, or Distinguished Honor Graduate, students must receive a first time "GO" for each critical event, to include Distance Learning examinations (See Appendix F of CATD ISAP).

(5) Students have 11 months to complete Phase II. As a reminder, students must complete Phases I-III within 13 months.

b. Phase II Credit. The USAMPS MPCCC (RC) POC's listed below will monitor students' progress in Phase II. Students must receive an 80% or higher on each exam to unlock each module. Blackboard will automatically generate a completion certificate once all course content has been satisfactorily completed. Weekly, the academic program of record (DTMS) will be updated to reflect students who have completed Phase II. This action will result in an update in ATRRS. Students whose ATRRS record is not updated within 30 days of completion may contact the POC's to inquire as to status.

7. Phase III Considerations (15-day Resident Instruction, MP School).

a. Graduation. Students will need to bring their Army Service Uniform (ASU) for graduation. There will be limited time to have ASU's altered during the course; ensure that they are within regulation prior to arrival. All students will need to wear pants and loafers (females may not wear skirts). An inspection of ASU's will be conducted.

b. HT/WT will be conducted at 0600 on Day 1 of the course. Students should report with their 705 from Phase II in hand. Failures will be an immediate recycle from the course; there will be no retests. Students are not authorized to attend the course on a temporary profile.

c. The first week of instruction will focus on integrated mission command systems and the MDMP process, culminating in an MDMP Exam. During the second week of instruction, students will demonstrate their knowledge of the MDMP through a Combined Arms Exercise.

8. POC for the above information is CPT Derek Booker at derek.c.booker.mil@mail.mil or (573) 563-5740.
