

Guidon

Thursday, February 18, 2021

Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

554th Engineer Battalion Ranger, Sapper train-up prepares Soldiers for schools

Company B, 554th Engineer Battalion, has developed and implemented a formalized Army Ranger and Sapper train-up program to assist service members in preparing for the rigors of the two schools.

GLWACH switching to new healthcare records system

General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital is finishing preparations in anticipation of a switch to an electronic health record system called MHS Genesis, which goes online April 24.

Army to target sexual harassment, sexual assault in new command climate survey

An updated version of the Defense Organizational Climate Survey, or DEOCS 5.0, will provide commanders with an evidence-based feedback tool to help them identify and intervene against a variety of areas critical to command climate.

Upcoming road closures

In support of the General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital replacement project, portions of Headquarters, Hawaii and Illinois avenues will be closed for about six months beginning March 1.

Read these stories and more at <https://www.army.mil/paowood>.

SNAIR helps drivers deal with winter weather

This month's polar vortex has worsened road conditions across the state of Missouri, and drivers need accurate, timely updates to ensure they travel safely, if at all. Fort Leonard Wood's Snow and Ice Removal program — referred to as SNAIR — has various methods in place to keep people informed of treacherous travel and weather-related information.

MoDOT offers winter driving tips

The Missouri Department of Transportation has published tips for drivers to stay safe when conditions are snowy, icy or characterized by a wintry mix.

USO reopens building to service members with limited occupancy

The Fort Leonard Wood United Service Organizations has reopened its building to limited foot traffic following guidance from the latest General Order No. 6.

Daugherty Bowling Center reopens

Daugherty Bowling Center reopened with new hours and a new general manager Feb. 11. John Money, who took the reins of DBC in December, is working to resume bowling specials and league play.

Taste of the Arts' deadline extended

Budding artists who want to showcase their skills still have time to enter Fort Leonard Wood's virtual art show. The Taste of the Arts has been rescheduled for Wednesday on the Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation Facebook page at www.facebook.com/mwr.ftwood. The submission deadline has also been extended until Sunday

Have an interesting story to tell?

We'd like to hear about it and possibly feature you in the Guidon.

Email guidoneditor@myguidon.com today!

