

Guidon

Thursday, January 7, 2021

Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

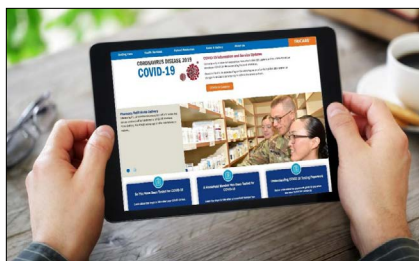

MSCoE Sends: Engaged leadership and our moral foundation

As stewards of our Army profession, we are trusted by the American people to accomplish today's missions while preparing for tomorrow's challenges. As leaders it is imperative that we develop ourselves and develop others to continue to uphold our standards, values and ethics.

Post updates COVID-19 guidance, policies

As leaders here continually assess COVID-19 protection and mitigation measures, the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence and Fort Leonard Wood commanding general has updated guidance and policies regarding the installation's COVID-19 control measures.

New GLWACH website now online

This new website — <https://leonard-wood.tricare.mil> — launched Dec. 18 and contains many new features for General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital beneficiaries.

DFAS extends tax deferment repayments through December 2021

The Defense Finance and Accounting Service is planning to extend payroll collections for Soldiers and Army civilians through December 2021 to reimburse a tax deferment designed to support personnel during the COVID-19 pandemic, officials said.

Read these stories and more on the Guidon website!

Fort Leonard Wood's top stories of 2020

This past year, Fort Leonard Wood service members and civilians found ways to continue the training mission while mitigating COVID-19 risks, welcomed new commanders, broke ground on the new General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital, won the U.S. Army Drill Sergeant of the Year award and opened a new Marine Corps Military Police Academy.

On post for the holidays:

Holdover trainees volunteer and have fun here during HBL

While most trainees traveled during holiday block leave, about 150 holdover trainees remained on post and participated in scuba diving, archery, paintball, bowling, and more.

Army civilian retires after 52 years of service to Fort Leonard Wood

Lola Coble, Department of Human Resources military personnel division chief, began her civilian service as a clerk-typist at Fort Leonard Wood on Dec. 18, 1968.

Post welcomes first baby of 2021

Sgt. 1st Class James Shipley, 3rd Chemical Brigade, and his wife, Brittany, welcomed their daughter, Madilyn, into the world at 10:22 a.m. Jan. 1. Madilyn, weighing 7 pounds, 11 ounces, was the first baby born at General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital in 2021.

New year, new you: Turning resolutions into habits

The year 2020 is in our rear-view mirror, and many of us are now considering changing parts of our lives for the new year. Many helpful resources are available at Fort Leonard Wood.

January is the perfect time to explore new hobbies

January is National Hobby Month, a time when Americans of all ages are encouraged to celebrate their hobbies, share their favorites with others and discover new ones to enjoy.