Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

MSCoE Sends: Living the Army Profession

As our nation recently celebrated its 244th birthday, and our Army — older than our nation — turned 245 years old, we reflect on our history and are proud to be a part of the best-trained, most lethal and most respected institution in the world.

Fort Leonard Wood Soldiers offer advice to those considering a personally procured move

Soldiers moving to their next duty stations this year are getting increased monetary payments when they move their own household good — called the personally procured move, or PPM. Two Fort Leonard Wood Soldiers offered advice based on their recent personal experience with do-it-yourself moves.

Lineman's Rodeo a final test for Prime Power Soldiers

Five Soldiers attending the U.S. Army Prime Power School's Power Line Distribution Course here demonstrated knowledge gained over the past 10 weeks during a Lineman's Rodeo competition Tuesday.

Leading by example

More than 72 hours of physical and mental competition ended for 20-plus Fort Leonard Wood Soldiers July 2 as the annual Maneuver Support Center of Excellence Best Warriors were named on Gammon Field. However, what made this year's competition unique was the addition of a new category — officer of the year.

COVID-19: Sustained prevention begins with you

Anyone who has ever worked for the Department of Defense has heard there is no room for complacency in the military. When it comes to COVID-19 mitigation practices, such as proper hand-washing, social distancing and mask-wearing, complacency holds the potential to undo the progress made over the past five months.

Library summer reading program coming to a close

The Bruce C. Clarke Library Dig Deeper: Read, Investigate, Discover summer reading program ends July 31. Readers can collect their incentives – while supplies last – until August 16. Visit the library during curbside hours, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. or 3 to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday to redeem all incentives and prizes at one time.

Ozark Tavern begins pick-up, delivery services

This was a week of milestones for Fort Leonard Wood's Ozark Tavern, which not only began delivering lunch and dinner orders Monday but also began a new, separate service offering meal delivery to Soldiers and military families who are quarantined on post due to COVID-19 mitigation procedures.

What's for dinner?

This week, GUIDON Managing Editor Brian Hill shares a recipe for a simple, vegetarian meal – rotini made from spinach and lentils in an alfredo sauce with sautéed tofu and vegetables.
