

Guidon

Friday, July 31, 2020

Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

USAMPS bids farewell to Bisacre, welcomes Knell

The U.S. Army Military Police School said farewell to Brig. Gen. Brian Bisacre and welcomed Col. Niave Knell during a change-of-commandant ceremony today at the MP Regimental Room in the John B. Mahaffey Museum Complex. Knell is the 51st commandant and chief of the MP Corps.

USAES welcomes new top enlisted leader

The U.S. Army Engineer School held an assumption-of-responsibility ceremony for Command Sgt. Maj. John Brennan Wednesday at the Engineer Regimental Room in the John B. Mahaffey Museum Complex.

August is Antiterrorism Awareness Month

Heightened awareness and vigilance can prevent and protect Army critical resources from acts of terrorism, and we should pay attention each and every day.

Service members, federal workers are required to follow rules on political activity

As they head to the polls Aug. 4 for the Missouri Primary, many voters may not realize that military service members and federal workers are subject to special rules and restrictions covering political activity during election season.

Read these stories and more on the Guidon website!

'Anyone would do that'

Training company commander helps toddler in need

Some days begin a little differently. For Capt. Mary Bustamante, commander of Company C, 787th Military Police Battalion, the morning of June 30 definitely fit that description.

Transportation Corps, 58th Transportation Battalion observe anniversaries one day apart

The U.S. Army Transportation Corps celebrates its 78th birthday today, and while the corps is based out of Fort Lee, Virginia, Fort Leonard Wood's 58th Transportation Battalion will also observe its anniversary this weekend.

'America's oldest and largest law firm' celebrates its 245th birthday

Wednesday marked the 245th birthday of America's oldest and largest law firm: the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps – better known as the JAG Corps.

Q&A: What does friendship mean to you?

In 2011, the United Nations General Assembly declared July 30 International Friendship Day. The Guidon staff asked eight Fort Leonard Wood community children to explain the meaning of friendship in their own words.

FMWR, Exchange team to host next 'Movie Night'

The next Movie Night is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Aug. 7 in the Baker Theater Auxiliary Parking Lot, this time featuring a free showing of the PG-rated "Sonic the Hedgehog."

What's for dinner?

This week, Jeanne Deaton, executive assistant for the U.S. Army Military Police School's Department of Training and Education, shares a recipe for Gochujang Chicken.

Story ideas? Submit them to guidoneditor@myguidon.com.