Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

MSCoE Sends: Have a safe Labor Day weekend

On Monday, we celebrate Labor Day and recognize the contributions of the workforce to our great nation. We look forward to the last long weekend of summer, when we can spend time with friends and family, enjoy the local area, participate in small gatherings and partake in outdoor recreation. We also want you to understand the risk of accidents and injuries associated with this holiday weekend.

Fort Leonard Wood Marines, their families honor fallen service members

Just after sunset on the evening of Aug. 31, a group of about 50 service members and their families stood on the lawn in front of the Marine Corps Detachment headquarters building to pay tribute to the 11 Marines, one Sailor and one Soldier killed Aug. 26, while supporting evacuation efforts near the airport in Kabul, Afghanistan.

USAES hosts Engineer Week events

The U.S. Army Engineer School hosted Engineer Regimental Week Aug. 23 to 27. While COVID-19 mitigation protocols impacted the traditional schedule for the second year in a row, many events were still able to be held with virtual capabilities and limited in-person attendance.

HEROES^{OF}THE BATTLEFIELD

Capt. Michael Domina is an OB-GYN doctor at General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital. He arrived here two years ago from Brooks Army Medical Center at Joint Base San Antonio-Fort Sam Houston, Texas, to cover a critical shortage in providers and to assist in training new and incoming providers on MHS GENESIS workflow in their area. We truly appreciate Domina's expertise, professionalism and selfless service.

Wendy Shickles, the 43rd Adutant General Battalion's Army and Air Force Exchange Service store manager, provides outstanding service to our newest teammates. Shickles has also been instrumental in spearheading COVID-19 response measures, including flexing and extending business hours and helping to prepare more than 25,000 personal hygiene bags for quarantined or isolated Soldiers. She exemplifies compassion and is worthy of recognition.

Q&A

JOHNNY J. JACKIEWICZ

SECURITY MANAGER
FORT LEONARD WOOD
DIRECTORATE OF PLANS, TRAINING,
MOBILIZATION AND SECURITY

Prevents compromise or loss of classified and sensitive documents and equipment, and ensures clearances and suitability investigations are processed properly for employment.

“The Army is a family tradition. I started as a dependent, then enlisted and served 26 years in the Army before retiring. I guess you could say it is in my blood.”

What do you like most about your Army career?

I have enjoyed the excitement of the job, traveling the world, learning new customs and traditions, friendships, and most of all, sharing it with my family.

What advice would you give to others who might be looking at working for the Army?

The opportunities with the Army are plentiful; you just need to know what you want and go for it. There's nothing better than being a part of a large family - the Army.

What is your most memorable Army experience?

My positive experiences have been quite numerous, and started when I first joined the Army. I was chosen for the Army reenlistment poster in 1980, which appeared in all media publications and billboards worldwide.

I was selected and assigned to the Military Security Force for the Office of the Joint Chief of Staff at the Pentagon, and attended the Military Intelligence Officer Basic Course at Fort Huachuca, Arizona for four months as a DA Intern while assigned to MSCoE.

What made you decide to have a career with the Army?

The Army is a family tradition. I started as a dependent, then enlisted and served 26 years in the Army before retiring. I spent a year as a contractor before applying for my current position at Fort Leonard Wood through the DA Intern Program. I guess you could say it is in my blood.
