

Guidon

Thursday, May 21, 2020

Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

Fort Leonard Wood holds virtual COVID-19 town hall

The U.S. Army Maneuver Support Center of Excellence and Fort Leonard Wood leadership held a virtual town hall Wednesday to provide updates on local policies regarding COVID-19.

MSCoE command team: Observing Memorial Day

On May 25, the last Monday in May, we observe Memorial Day to honor the fallen warriors who gave their lives in defense of our nation. First observed in 1868, Memorial Day was then known as Decoration Day because it was used to decorate the graves and commemorate the sacrifices of Civil War Soldiers.

Fort Leonard Wood Tax Center closed for remainder of tax season — offers additional resources for filing

Due to ongoing COVID-19 risk mitigation measures, the Fort Leonard Wood Tax Center is closed for the remainder of tax season this year. However, filing a complete tax return is still required by July 15, and the Legal Assistance Office has provided some useful tax filing resources to consider.

Fort Leonard Wood senior leaders surprise Soldier with President's Volunteer Service Award

The awards ceremony was over. Medals and certificates had been handed out, the band had played, attendees began leaving and Sgt. 1st Class Desiree Hunt started to clean up the grounds Tuesday at the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence Plaza. That's when Hunt was asked to come to the podium...

Read these stories and more on the Guidon website!

PX Pharmacy closed over Memorial Day weekend

The Post Exchange Pharmacy (including its curbside service) will be closed May 23 through 25 for Memorial Day weekend. They will reopen May 26.

Don't let alcohol mar Memorial Day weekend

Military families know Memorial Day has a special purpose, but it's a fact that many Americans see the long weekend as a time to celebrate. Too often, that celebration involves drinking and driving and results in traffic crashes and deaths.

In their own words: Fort Leonard Wood community members explain the significance of Memorial Day

As Fort Leonard Wood joins the rest of a grateful nation this weekend to honor the sacrifices of those Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines who gave their lives in service to the country, community members here share what Memorial Day means to them and how they observe the holiday.

Jogging safety: Protect yourself on the road

Jogging serves as an excellent conduit to release the excess energy accumulated while staying at home. However, running outside carries its own bevy of risks that must be mitigated.

Fort Leonard Wood Cub Scout Pack 149 take virtual tour of fire station

The Fort Leonard Wood Fire Department overcame social-distancing limitations to organize a tour of Fire Station 1 for Cub Scout Pack 149 Tuesday via video conference.

Discover the fish of Fort Leonard Wood

Fort Leonard Wood is home to many different species of fish and aquatic wildlife, and boasts a diverse self-sustaining ecosystem, making it an opportune place for anglers of all ages.