

LTC John C. Floyd

Lieutenant Colonel (LTC) John C. Floyd hails from Tampa, Florida. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies and Humanities from the University of South Florida, graduating magna cum laude in 2007. Upon completing his degree, he was commissioned through the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) as a Distinguished Military Graduate and entered active duty in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

LTC Floyd began his military career by completing the Basic Officer Leader Course at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. He then served as a Sapper Platoon Leader and Executive Officer for Echo Company, 2nd Battalion, 8th U.S. Cavalry Regiment. As Executive Officer, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 09-10 with the 1st Brigade Combat Team, 1st Cavalry Division. Following redeployment, he continued to serve in key leadership roles, including Battalion S4 and Brigade Engineer.

Subsequent assignments included positions with the 19th Engineer Battalion at Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he served as Assistant S3 and Commander of the 502nd Multi-Role Bridge Company. Following company command, he was assigned to the George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, where he served as the Facilities Engineer. He later moved to South Korea, where he was assigned to Eighth U.S. Army and the 2nd Infantry Division, serving as the S3 and Executive Officer for the 11th Engineer Battalion, as well as the S3 for the 2nd Infantry Division's Division Sustainment Brigade.

Upon returning to the United States, LTC Floyd was assigned to Headquarters, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, where he served as the Chief of Future Operations and the Chief of Operations, G-33, contributing to the strategic direction and operational effectiveness of the Corps. Most recently, he served in the Office of the Chief of Engineers as the Chief of the Program Integration Branch.

LTC Floyd's military career is distinguished by numerous awards and decorations, including the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, Iraqi Campaign Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, the prestigious Sapper Tab, and the Bronze de Fleury Medal.
