

Guidon

Thursday, November 19, 2020

Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri

Installation planners integrate environmental stewardship to sustain training opportunities

A four-person Land Rehabilitation and Management maintenance crew is two weeks into a month-long cleanup at an older construction debris dump site on Fort Leonard Wood's Maneuver Area 24 — one aspect of an ongoing program on the installation called Integrated Training Area Management.

Storm Night, Lineman's Rodeo test Soldiers attending Prime Power Distribution Course

Five Soldiers attending the U.S. Army Prime Power School's Power Line Distribution Course here demonstrated knowledge gained over the past 10 weeks during a Storm Night exercise Nov. 11 and 12, and a Lineman's Rodeo competition Tuesday.

Dining facilities getting ready for Thanksgiving

Fort Leonard Wood plans to hold its traditional Thanksgiving Day celebration Nov. 26 in 13 of its dining facilities on post, with meals for service members, as well as a specific time and location for retired service members.

Fort Leonard Wood celebrates GIS Day

The U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command Proponent - Geospatial team hosted a Geographic Information System Day event Wednesday at the first floor atrium of the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence building.

Read these stories and more on the Guidon website!

New GLWACH clinic offers ER alternative

General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital has an alternate option for some patients to receive urgent care without visiting the Emergency Room — the Acute Minor Illness Clinic.

Stay fire safe this Thanksgiving

As families gather in kitchens across the country to cook Thanksgiving dinner, many are stepping into what can be one of the most hazardous rooms in the house if you don't practice safe cooking habits.

Be extra vigilant during the holidays in protecting your data and identity

During the holiday season, consumers tend to make a greater number of purchases than they do during the rest of the year. They also tend to be more distracted and face an increased risk of identity theft during the holidays.

MPs keep trainee's memory alive on Veterans Day

Veterans Day is an annual November holiday when Americans acknowledge and thank those who have served in the U.S. military. The 787th Military Police Battalion chose that day to highlight one of their own — Pvt. Eric Stinson — who touched the lives of many during his brief time as a trainee there.

Fort Leonard Wood RV Park enjoys early success

Since Fort Leonard Wood's new RV Park opened Sept. 1, it has been filled or nearly filled to capacity, according to Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation officials.

BURN TO EARN NOV 2 - 25

Don't want to feel guilty about eating your favorite Thanksgiving meal? Earn your Thanksgiving calories by burning them off before the holiday! This virtual event gives you the choice to pick your calorie goal and specific exercises to perform. To participate and receive the program information, please email flwspecialevents@gmail.com and let us know you want to Burn to Earn!

Soldier's Burn-to-Earn program offers strategies to fight the holiday bulge

What started as one Soldier's class project is now giving members of the Fort Leonard Wood community a roadmap to avoid weight gain this holiday season.