Army offers helpful resources, tips for PCS season

The COVID-19 pandemic has put strains on many aspects of normality around the world, and the large numbers of service members completing a permanent-change-of-station, or PCS, move this summer are seeing delays in household goods shipments due to private-sector shortages in labor, equipment and supplies. But the Army has tools available and advice to help.

HEROES OF THE BATTLEFIELD

Sgt. 1st Class Seth Rogers, noncommissioned officer in charge of the Primary Care Service Line at General Leonard Wood Army Community Hospital, has gone above and beyond coordinating across the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence and Fort Leonard Wood to revamp Consolidated Troop Medical Clinic procedures. The procedures Rogers put in place provide effective communication and have reduced missed training time for Fort Leonard Wood's trainees.

Lee Ann Wilson, MSCoE operations, supports all Soldiers attending professional development courses and special Army schools here. She has been repeatedly recognized by Fort Leonard Wood training units for effectively managing packets and applications. Her trouble-shooting skills have enabled Soldiers to work through complex travel and entitlements issues, enabling them to attend schools worry-free. Wilson is a humble, selfless leader who is worthy of recognition.

LEONARD WOOD JUSTICE

Courts-Martial

— A staff sergeant plead guilty at a General Court Martial to one specification of sexual assault of a child in violation of Article 120 and one specification of domestic violence in violation of Article 128b. The Soldier was sentenced to a Dishonorable Discharge and time served.

— A specialist plead guilty at a Special Court Martial to one specification of the theft and sale of military property of value greater than $2,000 in violation of Article 108. The Soldier was sentenced to reduction to E-1 and sixty days confinement. The Soldier is currently pending administrative separation.

Reprimands

— A captain received a permanently filed General Officer Memorandum of Reprimand for driving while intoxicated.

— A staff sergeant received a permanently filed General Officer Memorandum of Reprimand for domestic violence against his wife and son.

Other Misconduct

— A staff sergeant received nonjudicial punishment pursuant to UCMJ, Article 15 for engaging in a prohibited relationship with a trainee. The Soldier was reduced to Sergeant (suspended for six months); forfeiture of pay for two months (suspended for six months); and a written reprimand.

— A private first class received nonjudicial punishment pursuant to UCMJ, Article 15 for four specifications of abusive sexual contact. The Soldier was reduced to private, forfeiture of pay for two months, 45 days of restriction and 14 days of extra duty.

— A private first class separated from the Army with an Other Than Honorable Discharge for sexually harassing female trainees while in basic training.

NOTE: Soldiers administratively separated receive one of three characterizations of service: Honorable, General, or Other Than Honorable. Anything less than Honorable may result in the loss of certain benefits and negatively impact employment and education opportunities.
