

Colonel Donyeill A. Mozer
Garrison Commander
USAG, White Sands Missile Range

Donyeill.a.mozer.mil@army.mil

Colonel Donyeill “Don” Mozer is a native of Statesville, North Carolina. He enlisted in the Army Reserves right after high school in 1994. Guided by mentors who recognized his potential, he transitioned to an officer role, earning his commission as a Quartermaster Officer branch detailed Infantry in 2000 from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He attended Infantry Officer Basic course at Ft. Moore, Georgia.

Education: He holds an Associate Degree in Liberal Arts from Holy Cross College in South Bend, Indiana, and earned his Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Minor in Religious Studies from The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, he holds a Masters in Public Administration from City University of New York John Jay College, Masters in Strategic Studies from the Army War College. He is an ABD PhD in Interdisciplinary Health Science from the University of Texas at El Paso. Additional military education includes United States Army Command and General Staff College, and Combined Logistics Officer Career Course.

Assignments: Colonel Mozer has led at all levels from rifle platoon leader to battalion commander, including three combat tours. Colonel Mozer's assignments include instructor roles at West Point and McDaniel College, staff positions across multiple divisions, and, most recently, Director of Operations for Joint Task Force North in El Paso, Texas where he also commanded the Army Field Support Battalion - Bliss. He holds a Ranger Tab, Airborne, Rigger, Expert (EIB), and Combat Infantry Badges.

Family: Colonel Mozer and his wife Likuana (Lowery) of Statesville, North Carolina have three children, Cierra, Camille, Donovan and one grandchild, Marcel.