

Prohibited Personnel Practices

By law, Federal employees may not:

Discriminate

• Solicit or consider employment recommendations based on factors other than personal knowledge or records of job related abilities or characteristics

• Coerce the political activity of any person

• Deceive or willfully obstruct any person from competing for employment

• Influence any person to withdraw from job competition

• Give an unauthorized preference or advantage to improve or injure the prospects of any particular person for employment

Engage in nepotism

• Take or threaten to take a personnel action because of whistleblowing

• Take or threaten to take a personnel action because of the exercise of a lawful appeal, complaint, or grievance right

• Discriminate based on personal conduct which does not adversely affect the performance of the employee or other employees

• Knowingly take or fail to take personnel action in the violation of veteran's preference laws

• Violate any law, rule or regulation implementing or directly concerning merit system principles

• Implement or enforce a nondisclosure agreement or policy lacking notification of whistleblower rights
